ARREST KIDNAPING GANG IN NEW YORK CITY

Twin Cities Reach Accord on Sewage Disposal

TROUBLESOME DETAILS AT LENGTH ARE AGREED UPON

COSTS OF OPERATION OF PLANT TO BE ALLOCATED ON ASSESSED VALUATION BASIS

AFTER 10 YEARS METHOD WILL BE CHANGED TO BASIS OF SEWAGE VOLUME

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Twin Cities have reached a complete accord on sewage disposal, a question which threatened for a time to split Minneapolis, St. Paul and South St. Paul into fighting factions and prevent cleaning up the Mississippi river.

A session was held in Mayor Gerhard Bundie's office yesterday afternoon, however, and the last troublesome details were agreed upon by representatives of the two cities.

Costs of operation of the plant will be allocated on an assessed valuation basis for the first ten years starting from construction of the disposal plant. After that time, the method will be changed to the basis of sewage volume.

Personnel of the joint commission in charge of the plant and its operation will include the mayors of the two cities and two representatives elected by each city council. The seventh member of the board will be chosen by the other six or that failing, appointed by the governor. The two members chosen by each council may be either private citizens or officials.

The engineering staff of the present metropolitan drainage commission will be taken over intact by the new joint commission, it was decided.

When the final draft of the proposed legislation which will set up the drainage disposal plant is completed, it will be submitted to Governor Floyd B. Olson with the approval of the two cities. If a special session of the legislature is called, the governor is expected to submit the measure and its passage virtually is assured.

"Is it not customary for the young lady to set the date?" he asked.

Miss Bennett will leave for Hollywood tomorrow to start work on her next picture.

SEEK CLUES TO MORE VICTIMS IN LETTERS

POWERS WAS IN CORRESPONDENCE WITH 115 WOMEN

CLARKSBURG, W. VA., AUTHORITY MAY USE STEAM SHOVEL AT GARAGE

SEARCH FOR MORE CORPSES, MATRIMONIAL "CONQUESTS" BY MAIL CONTINUES

Clarksburg, W. Va., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Clues to possible unknown victims of Harry F. Powers, confessed killer of five, were sought today among love letters written to 115 women, all numbered among his "conquests by mail."

Continued digging in the cellar of the garage in which he killed two women and three children, and outside where he buried his victims, failed to reveal more bodies. Officials may use a steam shovel today in the search for corpses.

It was believed, however, that only the skeptical nature of a small town policeman, Chief Johnson of Park Ridge, Ill., home of one victim, saved the lives of intended victims of the man who "knew right from wrong," as an alienist who examined Powers yesterday described him. Johnson's investigation led to discovery of Powers' murder plant.

One intended victim, Miss Virginia D. Bell, a nurse of Hagerstown, Md., had been scheduled to meet Powers today for the first time. Investigators had little doubt her fate eventually would have been that of Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke, of Northboro, Mass.

Mrs. Asta Eicher of Park Ridge, and the latter's three children.

Another intended victim of the postal Romeo, Mrs. Bessie Storrs, had been scheduled to marry Powers yesterday, although the fat, squat, puffy-eyed matrimonial agent already has one recognized wife, also wooed by mail.

Mrs. Edith D. Simpson, Detroit, once had her trousseau prepared for her marriage this month to the man she said "was so gentle he couldn't have killed a mouse."

Bessie Storrs told authorities she and Powers first planned to marry next Friday. She wrote to Powers: "Connie dear: I am so happy. Next Friday, just think of it, x x x Kisses. Love, Until next Friday, Bessie."

(Powers signed his name as Cornelius O. Pierson, "Connie for short.") Powers' reply was found in his pocket in a stamped envelope, ready to mail. It said:

"Bessie Darling: I am compelled to remain here until Saturday evening. I will be able to leave here by Sunday morning and reach Olean Monday afternoon. Will you be patient until that time, dear? Of course you will. x x x Honey, I certainly shall be happy when I can hold you close and when we can begin life together. Until Monday, dear. I love thee."

Even the widespread publicity given the story of Powers, his lies and his killings has not stopped the flow of love letters directed his way by secluded souls as result of his matrimonial agency magazine introductions. They were arriving by almost every mail.

W. H. Malone, gubernatorial candidate in Illinois, and prominent resident of Park Ridge, will provide burial expenses for the four members of the Eicher family, police revealed.

The bodies will be sent to Pittsburgh today for cremation, police said. The remains then will be sent to Park Ridge for burial. Inquest will be held later.

The body of Mrs. Lemke still is unclaimed at the undertaking parlor where it has lain since it was dug from a cellar ditch leading from the garage in quiet Dell to nearby Elk creek.

TRICKED WOMEN ABOUT HIS SUPPOSED WEALTH

Park Ridge, Ill., Sept. 1.—Harry F. Powers, who is under arrest at Clarksburg, W. Va., on charges of murdering two women and three children, is accused of tricking many women into believing he was wealthy.

Bankers and authorities of Park Ridge held evidence today that Powers' mail order sweethearts were not the only ones who were tricked in the exchange of letters.

Powers, according to charges, killed Mrs. Asta Eicher in the belief she was rich and that he could acquire her fortune.

The bankers and authorities yesterday opened Mrs. Eicher's safety deposit box at the Park Ridge State Bank. They found:

In actual cash, one cent.

Records that she had $3.84 in a checking account.

4 MONTHS' MAN HUNT FOR MURDER SUSPECT ENDED

PRISONER GIVING NAME OF JACK RICHARDS ADMITS HE IS GEORGE McDONALD

HELD AT RAPID CITY, S. D., BELIEVED TO HAVE KILLED SNYDER, STORE CLERK

Rapid City, S. D., Sept. 1.—(UP)—A four months man hunt for George McDonald, 26, suspect in the murder of Frank Snyder, 37, department store clerk, ended today when a prisoner giving the name of Jack Richards admitted he was McDonald, the sheriff's office said.

As Richards, McDonald was convicted on burglary charges in connection with the breaking into of a small store in Rockford, Pennington county. His sentence was for one year, suspended to six months.

Acting on information that Richards was wanted in Salt Lake City, Sheriff H. A. Neilsen communicated with the Utah city. Before an answer to his query had been received, McDonald admitted his identity, Neilsen said.

McDonald was arrested in Rapid City, May 18. Snyder was killed on May 6 according to Deputy Sheriff Art Rossau, police traced McDonald through Ogden, Utah and Denver, Colo., but lost his trail when he came to South Dakota.

Snyder was killed after he assertedly accompanied McDonald on a trip to buy liquor. Before Snyder's body was found McDonald had been arrested for speeding and released on bail.

It was expected Salt Lake City officials would seek McDonald's extradition. McDonald refused to talk beyond admitting his identity, Neilsen said.

ISLE OF MAN MOURNS PASSING OF SIR HALL CAINE

NOVELIST AND DRAMATIST DIES AT GREBA CASTLE LAST NIGHT

LUNG CONGESTION CAUSED HIS DEATH AFTER SEVERAL DAYS' BATTLE FOR RECOVERY

Ramsay, Isle of Man, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Isle of Man mourned today the passing of its most famous son, Sir Hall Caine, novelist and dramatist who died at Greba Castle, his home, last night.

Sir Hall lived at the castle with his family as a small boy. Scenes from many of his writings were taken from the picturesque surroundings in which he grew to manhood.

Lung congestion caused the novelist's death after several days of a vain battle for recovery. Sir Hall died before finishing his "Life of Christ," considered an outstanding literary effort when he was forced to abandon work on it a year ago.

Sir Hall's wife and two sons were at his bedside when he died at 10:55 P. M.

Sir Hall was born at Runcon, Cheshire, but was taken to the Isle of Man as a boy. He left school early and was apprenticed to an architect.

At 15 he met Gladstone, and although greatly impressed by the statesman, declined an opportunity to become his steward.

He was a great friend of the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, but never was converted to spiritualism.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS IN CONVENTION AT KANSAS CITY, MO.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Five thousand men, clad in the khaki of war time, assembled today to march behind bands and drum corps as a feature of the annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The parade was the first event of a day replete with celebrations, business sessions, feasts and ceremonials. It marked the high point of the five-day convention.

All three members of the Minneapolis Amputation Post No. 1539 marched today in the parade of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here, and attracted more attention than many of the larger units.

L. L. Heaton and Arthur O. Henderson lost their left legs in the world war. Andrew Rennes lost his right leg.

J. A. Wood, 72-year-old delegate from Monticello, Minn., to the annual encampment here of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, today was seeking transportation home. Wood, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, lost his return ticket, he reported.

HOMING PIGEON IN FLIGHT GIVES CLUE TO KIDNAPING

LEADS 2 AERIAL POLICEMEN ON TRAIL THAT MAY SOLVE A CRIME

RANSOM DEMAND INSTRUCTIONS ASKED NEW YORKER TO TIE MONEY TO BIRD'S FEET

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—One of the strangest clues on record—that offered by a homing pigeon in flight—has led two aerial policemen on a trail that may solve a kidnapping.

Several days ago Edgar F. Hazleton, former district attorney of Queens, reported his son, Edgar F. Hazleton, Jr., missing, and revealed he had received demands for ransom, ranging from $2,500 to $25,000. Hazleton was instructed to tie the money to the feet of a homing pigeon and release the pigeon. The pigeon belonged to the alleged kidnappers.

Yesterday Air Patrolmen Allen Van Hagen and Arthur Kafka followed in a police department plane while a homing pigeon, one of those referred to in the ransom letters, led them to a roost in the rear of a house in Flushing, occupied by Charles Kofernack.

Zooming low over the area, Van Hagen and Kafka drew a map and wrote instructions on a piece of paper, attached it to a small handbag, and dropped it to Inspector John Gallagher.

Accompanied by a squad, Gallagher visited the Kofernack residence and found the bird in the pigeon roost along with about 25 others.

Kofernack said the birds belonged to a man who rented the roost for $10 a month. He was unable to give the man's name, but said the stranger came to the house every night in a small green sedan. He described the man and police posted a guard at the house.

The pigeon was one of two found as Hazleton had been directed in a bird shop.

A Bluebeard and His Victims

The fiendish murders of Mrs. Asta Eicher (center), of Park Ridge, Ill., and her three children—Greta, 14 (left); Annabel, 9 (right); and Henry, 12—has resulted in the arrest of Harry F. Powers, alias Cornelius O. Pierson (lower), of Clarksburg, W. Va., as a modern Bluebeard. Powers is said to have wooed Mrs. Eicher, a widow, by mail. She disappeared two months ago, stating she and her children were going to West Virginia, where she was to marry. The bodies of the four were found beneath the cellar floor of a garage recently built in Clarksburg by Powers.

Ambassador Forbes has urged the Lindberghs to fly to Manila.

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IS A TON IN WEIGHT

COLLAPSE OF $30,000,000 UTILITY CONCERN TO BE INVESTIGATED

LESS THAN 2 YEARS AGO FOSHAY WAS FINANCIAL POWER IN NORTHWEST

Minneapolis, Sept. 1.—(UP)—With a ton of documentary evidence on hand, the trial of Wilbur Foshay and his six associates in the collapse of the $30,000,000 utility concern and its affiliated organizations started today.

Less than two years ago Foshay was considered one of the financial powers of the northwest and when the Foshay Tower, highest building in Minneapolis, was dedicated a cabinet member represented President Hoover.

Foshay and the others associated with him in managing the W. B. Foshay company are charged with using the mails to defraud. Judge Joseph W. Molyneux presided.

Marshals have served subpoenas on 140 witnesses which the government will call and the defense may bring almost as many to the witness stand including Foshay himself. Records of the concern and correspondence were brought to the federal building in truck loads all day yesterday in preparation for the trial.

An entire panel of 70 prospective jurors was challenged by the defense which moved that the panel be dismissed on the grounds that Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth had been slighted purposely in the selection of the panel.

Judge Molyneux denied the challenge after Joel M. Dickey, clerk of the district court, had been placed on the stand to testify as to the drawing of the panel.

Twelve tentative jurors were selected and Judge Molyneux questioned them as to their qualifications. Five jurors had been accepted by the noon recess.

Other defendants beside Foshay, who now is connected with a Colorado development, are H. H. Henley, former executive vice president of the W. B. Foshay company; H. E. McGinty, secretary and treasurer; C. W. Salisbury, vice president; R. J. Andrus, executive vice president of the W. B. Foshay company and former president of the Public Utilities Consolidated corporation, a Foshay subsidiary; Palmer V. Mabry and H. F. Welch, assistant secretaries.

The trial marks conclusion of months of investigating by government officials into the financial workings of the huge corporation which had thousands of stockholders in each northwestern state. Last spring the federal grand jury heard testimony of stockholders, many of whom said they had lost their life savings, and returned the indictments against Foshay and his associates.

CUDAHY PACKING CO. TO BUY ONE MILLION DOLLARS OF COTTON

PURCHASES TO EXTEND FROM NOW UNTIL DECEMBER 1

WILL THEN BE HELD UNTIL THE PRICE OF COMMODITY GOES UP

Chicago, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Cudahy Packing Company of Cudahy, Wis., will buy probably $1,000,000 worth of cotton between now and December 1, and hold it until the price goes up, according to an announcement by E. A. Cudahy, Jr., president.

The company's purpose, Cudahy said, will be to help southern plantation owners get rid of their surplus and boost the price of cotton to above production cost.

Cudahy said the company would invest in this way ten per cent of its total sales income in the cotton states and that it was expected these sales would be $10,000,000.

The packing company's plan is similar to that of William Wrigley, Jr., who months ago ordered that all the profits his chewing gum company made in the south should be invested in cotton to help take the surplus off the growers' hands.

CHARGE 5 HELD ROSENTHAL, RICH YOUNG BROKER

4 MEN AND 1 WOMAN TAKEN IN A SPECTACULAR ROUND-UP

POLICE ASSERT A NOTEBOOK SEIZED CONTAINED NAMES OF KIDNAPING PROSPECTS

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The sudden appearance of two hoodlums, coupled with the old police trick of copying the serial numbers of ransom money was responsible today for the capture of the gang which kidnapped Charles M. Rosenthal, millionaire broker, police announced today.

Four men and one woman were under arrest as details of the spectacular roundup were made known. Capture of the gang, police said, probably saved the life of the ring-leader, for he had double-crossed his followers in distributing the ransom money and was to be "put on the spot."

Those arrested were: Clarence (Nick) Green, 29, colored, arrested in Atlantic City. He is the ring-leader of the gang, according to police, an proprietor of the Hotel Vendig, New York.

Bettine Green, 29, colored, arrested with Green at Atlantic City, where the two were living in an apartment. Jack Markham, arrested in New York.

Theodore Adinolfi, alias Harry King, 26, of New York.

Albert Sileo, alias John Rocco, arrested with Adinolfi in a Newark apartment where they were living in suddenly acquired luxury.

Police said they seized a notebook containing names of future kidnapping prospects, all wealthy and some prominent.

Rosenthal, who is 23 and lives in Lawrence, L. I., was released after 17 days of captivity in a Manhattan apartment after his mother had paid the gang $50,000 ransom. The negotiations were carried on through the personal column of a morning newspaper.

After two attempts the money was left in a bag in the checkroom of the Hotel Vendig, police said. They learned that Green opened the bag and removed $25,000 before splitting the rest with his companions. He then went to Atlantic City with the woman, while Adinolfi and Sileo went to Newark.

The latter two were captured in a surprise raid last night, and confessed, police said, after they were shown the serial numbers of bills in their possession.

Acting on this information, detectives left at once for Atlantic City with Rosenthal, and arrested Green and the woman. Rosenthal, they said, identified his captors.

Adinolfi and Sileo, according to police, were planning to kill Green for double-crossing them.

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Three men, believed to be other members of the gang which kidnapped Charles M. Rosenthal, young millionaire broker of Lawrence, L. I., and held him prisoner 17 days, were arrested in Manhattan today.

Four other alleged members of the gang had already been arrested today, two in Newark, N. J., and two in Atlantic City.

RICHARD T. RINGLING, CIRCUS OWNER, DIES

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Richard T. Ringling, one of the owners of the famous Ringling Brothers Circus, died last night at his ranch at White Sulphur Springs, Mont., according to advices received here today by F. Darius Benham, a friend.

Ringling, who was 36 years old, was the son of Alf T. Ringling, one of the seven brothers who started the great circus organization. Only one of the brothers, John, is still alive.

Young Ringling early displayed a liking for the circus profession which his father and uncles had built up. He had a chance at operating a circus when his father purchased a small circus for him which was operated as the R. T. Richard Shows.

When the elder Ringling died 11 years ago, young Ringling inherited his father's share of the business.

He has not been strong and according to advices to New York, died suddenly last night of heart disease.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS IN CONVENTION AT KANSAS CITY, MO.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Five thousand men, clad in the khaki of war time, assembled today to march behind bands and drum corps as a feature of the annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The parade was the first event of a day replete with celebrations, business sessions, feasts and ceremonies. It marked the high point of the five-day convention.

All three members of the Minneapolis Amputation Post No. 1539 marched today in the parade of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here, and attracted more attention than many of the larger units.

HOMING PIGEON IN FLIGHT GIVES CLUE TO KIDNAPING

LEADS 2 AERIAL POLICEMEN ON TRAIL THAT MAY SOLVE A CRIME

RANSOM DEMAND INSTRUCTIONS ASKED NEW YORKER TO TIE MONEY TO BIRD'S FEET

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—One of the strangest clues on record—that offered by a homing pigeon in flight—has led two aerial policemen on a trail that may solve a kidnapping.

Several days ago Edgar F. Hazleton, former district attorney of Queens, reported his son, Edgar F. Hazleton, Jr., missing, and revealed he had received demands for ransom, ranging from $2,500 to $25,000. Hazleton was instructed to tie the money to the feet of a homing pigeon and release the pigeon. The pigeon belonged to the alleged kidnappers.

Yesterday Air Patrolmen Allen Van Hagen and Arthur Kafka followed in a police department plane while a homing pigeon, one of those referred to in the ransom letters, led them to a roost in the rear of a house in Flushing, occupied by Charles Koferneck.

Zooming low over the area, Van Hagen and Kafka drew a map and wrote instructions on a piece of paper, attached it to a small handbag, and dropped it to Inspector John Gallagher.

Accompanied by a squad, Gallagher visited the Koferneck residence and found the bird in the pigeon roost along with about 25 others.

Koferneck said the birds belonged to a man who rented the roost for $10 a month. He was unable to give the man's name, but said the stranger came to the house every night in a small green sedan. He described the man and police posted a guard at the house.

The pigeon was one of two found as Hazleton had been directed in a bird shop.

A Bluebeard and His Victims

The fiendish murders of Mrs. Asta Eicher (center), of Park Ridge, Ill., and her three children—Greta, 14 (left); Annabel, 9 (right); and Henry, 12—has resulted in the arrest of Harry F. Powers, alias Cornelius O. Pierson (lower), of Clarksburg, W. Va., as a modern Bluebeard. Powers is said to have wooed Mrs. Eicher, a widow, by mail. She disappeared two months ago, stating she and her children were going to West Virginia, where she was to marry. The bodies of the four were found beneath the cellar floor of a garage recently built in Clarksburg by Powers.

FOSHAY TRIAL STARTS IN MINNEAPOLIS TODAY

WANTS BANDITRY PUNISHED BY DEATH IN 'CHAIR'

St. Paul, Sept. 1.—(UP)—City Councillor Leo F. Foshay wants the state legislature to make banditry punishable by death in the electric chair.

LINDBERGH GO TO RESORT IN THE MOUNTAINS

PLAN TO RECUPERATE FROM THEIR FLIGHT ACROSS THE PACIFIC

WERE GIVEN 6 DAYS OFFICIAL RECEPTIONS AND BAN- QUETS IN TOKIO

Tokio, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh retreated to a mountain resort today to recuperate from their flight across the Pacific and six days of official receptions and banquets in Tokyo.

They made a five-hour automobile journey over rough mountain roads to Karuzawa, popular summer resort where they will be guests at the summer villa of United States Ambassador W. Cameron Forbes.

"We hope to get a good rest," Col. Lindbergh said. "While we are in the mountains we will plan the remainder of our trip."

"We have not decided when we will leave for China or whether we will go to the Philippine Islands."

Ambassador Forbes has urged the Lindberghs to fly to Manila.

Official receptions ended last night when the Lindberghs were the guests of Premier Reijiro Wakatsuki at dinner.

GRAF ZEPPELIN NEARS END OF FLIGHT TO BRAZIL

Fernando de Noronha, Brazil, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Graf Zeppelin, nearing the end of its flight across the south Atlantic to Brazil, passed this island at 2:40 p. m. G.M.T. (8:40 a. m. C.S.T.).

Fernando de Noronha is in the Atlantic, 125 miles off eastern Brazil.

Friedrichshafen, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Graf Zeppelin approached the eastern Brazilian coast today on its non-stop flight to Pernambuco. Advances indicated the airship would be moored at Recife, Pernambuco, this afternoon.

Commander Hugo Eckener by wireless today said he was flying west of steamship lanes to avoid tropical rain.

The total distance of the flight from Friedrichshafen to Pernambuco is approximately 5,000 miles.

Pernambuco, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The dirigible Graf Zeppelin arrived here at 5:18 p. m. local time.

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IS A TON IN WEIGHT

COLLAPSE OF $30,000,000 UTILITY CONCERN TO BE INVESTIGATED

LESS THAN 2 YEARS AGO FOSHAY WAS FINANCIAL POWER IN NORTHWEST

Minneapolis, Sept. 1.—(UP)—With a ton of documentary evidence on hand, the trial of Wilbur Foshay and his six associates in the collapse of the $30,000,000 utility concern and its affiliated organizations started today.

Less than two years ago Foshay was considered one of the financial powers of the northwest and when the Foshay Tower, highest building in Minneapolis, was dedicated a cabinet member represented President Hoover.

Foshay and the others associated with him in managing the W. B. Foshay company are charged with using the mails to defraud. Judge Joseph W. Molyneux presided.

Marshals have served subpoenas on 140 witnesses which the government will call and the defense may bring almost as many to the witness stand including Foshay himself. Records of the concern and correspondence were brought to the federal building in truck loads all day yesterday in preparation for the trial.

An entire panel of 70 prospective jurors was challenged by the defense which moved that the panel be dismissed on the grounds that Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth had been slighted purposely in the selection of the panel.

Judge Molyneux denied the challenge after Joel M. Dickey, clerk of the district court, had been placed on the stand to testify as to the drawing of the panel.

Twelve tentative jurors were selected and Judge Molyneux questioned them as to their qualifications. Five jurors had been accepted by the noon recess.

Other defendants beside Foshay, who now is connected with a Colorado development, are H. H. Henley, former executive vice president of the W. B. Foshay company; H. E. McGinty, secretary and treasurer; C. W. Salisbury, vice president; R. J. Andrus, executive vice president of the W. B. Foshay company and former president of the Public Utilities Consolidated corporation, a Foshay subsidiary; Palmer V. Mabry and H. F. Welch, assistant secretaries.

The trial marks conclusion of months of investigating by government officials into the financial workings of the huge corporation which had thousands of stockholders in each northwestern state. Last spring the federal grand jury heard testimony of stockholders, many of whom said they had lost their life savings, and returned the indictments against Foshay and his associates.

CUDAHY PACKING CO. TO BUY ONE MILLION DOLLARS OF COTTON

PURCHASES TO EXTEND FROM NOW UNTIL DECEMBER 1

WILL THEN BE HELD UNTIL THE PRICE OF COMMODITY GOES UP

Chicago, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Cudahy Packing Company of Cudahy, Wis., will buy probably $1,000,000 worth of cotton between now and December 1, and hold it until the price goes up, according to an announcement by E. A. Cudahy, Jr., president.

The company's purpose, Cudahy said, will be to help southern plantation owners get rid of their surplus and boost the price of cotton to above production cost.

Cudahy said the company would invest in this way ten per cent of its total sales income in the cotton states and that it was expected these sales would be $10,000,000.

The packing company's plan is similar to that of William Wrigley, Jr., who months ago ordered that all the profits his chewing gum company made in the south should be invested in cotton to help take the surplus off the growers' hands.

Berlin, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Reichsbank reduced its discount rate to 8 per cent today from 10 per cent. The 12 per cent Lombard, or collateral rate, was reduced to 10 per cent, both cuts effective tomorrow.

CHARGE 5 HELD ROSENTHAL, RICH YOUNG BROKER

4 MEN AND 1 WOMAN TAKEN IN A SPECTACULAR ROUND-UP

POLICE ASSERT A NOTEBOOK SEIZED CONTAINED NAMES OF KIDNAPING PROSPECTS

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The sudden unexplained affluence of two hoodlums, coupled with the old police trick of copying the serial numbers of ransom money was responsible today for the capture of the gang which kidnapped Charles M. Rosenthal, millionaire broker, police announced today.

Four men and one woman were under arrest as details of the spectacular roundup were made known. Capture of the gang, police said, probably saved the life of the ring-leader, for he had double-crossed his followers in distributing the ransom money and was to be "put on the spot."

Those arrested were: Clarence (Nick) Green, 29, colored, arrested in Atlantic City. He is the ring-leader of the gang, according to police, and proprietor of the Hotel Vendig, New York.

Bettine Green, 29, colored, arrested with Green at Atlantic City, where the two were living in an apartment. Jack Markham, arrested in New York.

Theodore Adinolfi, alias Harry King, 26, of New York.

Albert Sileo, alias John Rocco, arrested with Adinolfi in a Newark apartment where they were living in suddenly acquired luxury.

Police said they seized a notebook containing names of future kidnapping prospects, all wealthy and some prominent.

Rosenthal, who is 23 and lives in Lawrence, L. I., was released after 17 days of captivity in a Manhattan apartment after his mother had paid the gang $50,000 ransom. The negotiations were carried on through the personal column of a morning newspaper.

After two attempts the money was left in a bag in the checkroom of the Hotel Vendig, police said. They learned that Green opened the bag and removed $25,000 before splitting the rest with his companions. He then went to Atlantic City with the woman, while Adinolfi and Sileo went to Newark.

The latter two were captured in a surprise raid last night and confessed, police said, after they were shown the serial numbers of bills in their possession.

Acting on this information, detectives left at once for Atlantic City with Rosenthal, and arrested Green and the woman. Rosenthal, they said, identified his captors.

Adinolfi and Sileo, according to police, were planning to kill Green for double-crossing them.

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Three men, believed to be other members of the gang which kidnapped Charles M. Rosenthal, young millionaire broker of Lawrence, L. I., and held him prisoner 17 days, were arrested in Manhattan today.

Four other alleged members of the gang had already been arrested today, two in Newark, N. J., and two in Atlantic City.

RICHARD T. RINGLING, CIRCUS OWNER, DIES

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Richard T. Ringling, one of the owners of the famous Ringling Brothers Circus, died last night at his ranch at White Sulphur Springs, Mont., according to advances received here today by F. Darius Benham, a friend.

Ringling, who was 36 years old, was the son of Alf T. Ringling, one of the seven brothers who started the great circus organization. Only one of the brothers, John, is still alive.

Young Ringling early displayed a liking for the circus profession which his father and uncles had built up. He had a chance at operating a circus when his father purchased a small circus for him which was operated as the R. T. Richards Shows.

When the elder Ringling died 11 years ago, young Ringling inherited his father's share of the business.

He has not been strong and according to advances to New York, died suddenly last night of heart disease.

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Rudy Vallee and his bride, the former Fay Webb, have been under police guard as the result of a reported kidnap threat.

The fact the writer knew Mrs. Vallee planned to leave for Santa Monica, Calif., today to visit her parents, a fact known to only a few persons, caused police to pay attention to the report even though they suspected it might be the work of a crank.

Mrs. Vallee was to leave today as scheduled.

GOV. PINCHOT IN PLEA FOR JUSTICE TO FARMER GROUP

SAYS THAT FOR GENERATIONS
FARMER HAS BEEN ORPHAN
CHILD OF POLITICS

URGES EXTRA SESSION OF CON-
GRESS TO CONSIDER ADE-
QUATE RELIEF

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Upon justice to the farmer—justice as he himself understands it—depends "the welfare of America, the safety of America, the preservation of our institutions, and the security of our children," Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania warned an audience of Missourians today.

Governor Pinchot spoke before several thousand people, gathered for a meeting of the Missouri Farmers association.

"For generations the farmer has been the orphan child of American politics and I am for taking him into the family," Pinchot said in opening his address, in which he urged an extra session of congress to consider the farm relief, lower farm taxes, better marketing facilities, and organized efforts to secure foreign sales for existing crop surpluses.

Asserting that a depression such as the present one could not exist if the farmer were able to buy, Pinchot said: "There can be no secure and permanent prosperity in the United States unless the farmer is prosperous. For years we have been saying it. For years we may have believed it. But never as a nation have we acted on our belief."

The governor traced the financial history of agriculture citing:

A decrease of $4,000,000,000 in the farm income, while the national income was increasing $22,000,000,000.

A yearly increase of $1,000,000,000 in the farm debt.

A $20,000,000,000 shrinkage in the farm values.

From 1926 to 1931, 682,000 farmers, or ten per cent, lost their homes by foreclosure, Pinchot declared.

"All this," he said, "amounts to a farm disaster unprecedented in human history, so far as I know. If it does not show that agriculture has been getting the neck of the chicken at the national table, I know no way to prove it."

There are two ways, the governor said, in which the farmer can be aided. One is to increase his return; the other is to cut down his expenses.

"The best way to increase the return the farmer gets is to carry out the promise of the republican national platform, to put agriculture on a 'ba-

"The best way to cut down the farmer's load is to reduce his taxes."

Pinchot told how Pennsylvania had taken under state control more than 20,000 miles of township roads, relieving the farmer of that burden, and had voted large subsidies for country schools. Both schemes, he asserted, were practicable and fair.

Turning to plans for increasing the farmer's return, Pinchot asserted that a tariff could not accomplish that purpose. The equalization fee, he said, would fill the need.

"The debenture plan," he added, "unquestionably has its merits. The question is not whether we shall have the equalization fee or the debenture plan, but whether, by whatever means the farm industry shall be put on a basis of economic equality with other industries."

"The farmers asked for the equalization fee. They asked for the debenture plan. Instead they were given that huge and costly lemon, the Farm board, for which they did not ask."

Acresage reduction, Pinchot asserted, is an uncertain remedy for existing conditions. Far safer and more certain, he declared, would be organized efforts to find a foreign market for farm products, as is done for the products of industry.

"Distribution methods," he said, "should be improved, removing a part of the profit of the middleman, giving the farmer a larger share of the consumer's dollar. Freight rates, instead of being increased, should be lowered."

"And, most of all, the farmer and the laborer should realize that theirs is a common cause, that each represents the best possible market of the other."

"Divided, the plain people have watched the special interests pay their piper and call the tune. United, nothing could stop them from calling their own tune and dancing to it."

IMPOSTOR VICTIMIZES SEVERAL OLD COUPLES

Red Wing, Minn., Sept. 1.—(UP)—A young man claiming to be a son of United States Senator Henrik Shipstead was sought today by authorities as the perpetrator of a swindle victimizing aged persons.

On the complaint of several old couples who said that they had contributed money to a well dressed young man who promised that the senator, his father, would provide them with a $30 a month old-age pension, Congressman August Andresen wired to Shipstead. The senator said the young man was an impostor.

There is no federal law providing old age pensions, Andresen said, and the young man was committing a fraud.

ENGLISH ECONOMY PLANS REMAIN DEEP SECRET

INDUSTRY, BUSINESS AND COM-MERCE AWAIT ANNOUNCE-MENT

INEVITABLE AND EQUITABLE
SACRIFICES ARE EX-
PECTED

By HERBERT MOORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Sept. 1.—The national government's economy plans remained secret today while the nation's industry, business and commerce awaited announcement of the respective roles to be played in inevitable and equitable sacrifices.

It was expected that the measures aimed to overcome a $600,000,000 budget deficit would be completed at a cabinet meeting today. They probably will not be announced until the special session of parliament tentatively set for Sept. 8.

Salaries of ministers of the government, members of parliament, judges, civil servants, teachers, soldiers, sailors, and service fliers were expected to fall under the axe.

The Daily Express understood today that import duties on motor cars, films, musical instruments, clocks and watches, now 33 1-3 per cent, super-tax, death duties, and a general raise in taxes on beer and wines, gasoline and entertainments.

Reliable reports said the three parties in the national government agreed that the ratio of four laborites, four conservatives, and two liberals should be maintained in distributing the minor ministerial posts. Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, however, told those who served as junior ministers in the late labor government not to sacrifice their careers through standing by him.

MacDonald's advice was not heeded

in his own family, for his son Malcolm announced that he would support the national government. Young MacDonald was regarded as likely to receive a ministerial post, as was Robert Craigie, foreign office expert who served MacDonald and ex-Foreign Minister Arthur Henderson during the London naval conference and later negotiations with France and Italy.

"Take a squint at this Ball and Bottle Test

—you can SEE that New Iso-Vis stands up"

The more body an oil has, the slower the ball drops. Note that used New Iso-Vis (Tube 2) has practically the same body as the fresh oil (Tube 1), while used "x" oil (Tube 3) has thinned out decidedly.

"If you want the low down on a motor oil, these little steel balls certainly give it to you. Maybe they'll hand you a jolt like they did me."

Put in a fill of New Iso-Vis. When it's time to drain, go into any Standard Oil Service Station or dealer and use this oil from your own car in the Ball and Bottle Test.

This proof will convince you!

RESULTS

of Indianapolis Speedway Tests, Certified by A. A. A.

1 Iso-Vis Motor Oil did not thin out from dilution.

2 During the entire test of 9,000 miles, the engines and chassis of all cars were lubricated effectively.

3 Oil Added: only 63/100 of a quart—average for all cars—of Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy) in 1,000 mile test at 30 miles per hour.

GRESS TO CONSIDER ADE-
QUATE RELIEF

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Upon justice to the farmer—justice as he himself understands it—depends "the welfare of America, the safety of America, the preservation of our institutions, and the security of our children," Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania warned an audience of Missourians today.

Governor Pinchot spoke before several thousand people, gathered for a meeting of the Missouri Farmers association.

"For generations the farmer has been the orphan child of American politics and I am for taking him into the family," Pinchot said in opening his address, in which he urged an extra session of congress to consider the farm relief, lower farm taxes, better marketing facilities, and organized efforts to secure foreign sales for existing crop surpluses.

Asserting that a depression such as the present one could not exist if the farmer were able to buy, Pinchot said: "There can be no secure and permanent prosperity in the United States unless the farmer is prosperous. For years we have been saying it. For years we may have believed it. But never as a nation have we acted on our belief."

The governor traced the financial history of agriculture citing:

A decrease of $4,000,000,000 in the farm income, while the national income was increasing $22,000,000,000.

A yearly increase of $1,000,000,000 in the farm debt.

A $20,000,000,000 shrinkage in the farm values.

From 1926 to 1931, 632,000 farmers, or ten per cent, lost their homes by foreclosure, Pinchot declared.

"All this," he said, "amounts to a farm disaster unprecedented in human history, so far as I know. If it does not show that agriculture has been getting the neck of the chicken at the national table, I know no way to prove it."

There are two ways, the governor said, in which the farmer can be aided. One is to increase his return; the other is to cut down his expenses.

"The best way to increase the return the farmer gets is to carry out the promise of the republican national platform, to put agriculture on a 'ba-

"The best way to cut down the farmer's load is to reduce his taxes."

Pinchot told how Pennsylvania had taken under state control more than 20,000 miles of township roads, relieving the farmer of that burden, and had voted large subsidies for country schools. Both schemes, he asserted, were practicable and fair.

Turning to plans for increasing the farmer's return, Pinchot asserted that a tariff could not accomplish that purpose. The equalization fee, he said, would fill the need.

"The debenture plan," he added, "unquestionably has its merits. The question is not whether we shall have the equalization fee or the debenture plan, but whether, by whatever means the farm industry shall be put on a basis of economic equality with other industries."

"The farmers asked for the equalization fee. They asked for the debenture plan. Instead they were given that huge and costly lemon, the Farm board, for which they did not ask."

Acresage reduction, Pinchot asserted, is an uncertain remedy for existing conditions. Far safer and more certain, he declared, would be organized efforts to find a foreign market for farm products, as is done for the products of industry.

"Distribution methods," he said, "should be improved, removing a part of the profit of the middleman, giving the farmer a larger share of the consumer's dollar. Freight rates, instead of being increased, should be lowered."

"And, most of all, the farmer and the laborer should realize that theirs is a common cause, that each represents the best possible market of the other.

"Divided, the plain people have watched the special interests pay their piper and call the tune. United, nothing could stop them from calling their own tune and dancing to it."

IMPOSTOR VICTIMIZES SEVERAL OLD COUPLES

Red Wing, Minn., Sept. 1.—(UP)—A young man claiming to be a son of United States Senator Henrik Shipstead was sought today by authorities as the perpetrator of a swindle victimizing aged persons.

On the complaint of several old couples who said that they had contributed money to a well dressed young man who promised that the senator, his father, would provide them with a $30 a month old-age pension, Congressman August Andresen wired to Shipstead. The senator said the young man was an impostor.

There is no federal law providing old age pensions, Andresen said, and the young man was committing a fraud.

ENGLISH ECONOMY PLANS REMAIN DEEP SECRET

INDUSTRY, BUSINESS AND COM-

INEVITABLE AND EQUITABLE
SACRIFICES ARE EX-
PECTED

By HERBERT MOORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Sept. 1.—The national government's economy plans remained secret today while the nation's industry, business and commerce awaited announcement of the respective roles to be played in inevitable and equitable sacrifices.

It was expected that the measures aimed to overcome a $600,000,000 budget deficit would be completed at a cabinet meeting today. They probably will not be announced until the special session of parliament tentatively set for Sept. 8.

Salaries of ministers of the government, members of parliament, judges, civil servants, teachers, soldiers, sailors, and service fliers were expected to fall under the axe.

The Daily Express understood today that import duties on motor cars, films, musical instruments, clocks and watches, now 33 1-3 per cent, super-tax, death duties, and a general raise in taxes on beer and wines, gasoline and entertainments.

Reliable reports said the three parties in the national government agreed that the ratio of four laborites, four conservatives, and two liberals should be maintained in distributing the minor ministerial posts. Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, however, told those who served as junior ministers in the late labor government not to sacrifice their careers through standing by him.

MacDonald's advice was not heeded

in his own family, for his son Malcolm announced that he would support the national government. Young MacDonald was regarded as likely to receive a ministerial post, as was Robert Craigie, foreign office expert who served MacDonald and ex-Foreign Minister Arthur Henderson during the London naval conference and later negotiations with France and Italy.

"Take a squint at this Ball and Bottle Test

—you can SEE that New Iso-Vis stands up"

The more body an oil has, the slower the ball drops. Note that used New Iso-Vis (Tube 2) has practically the same body as the fresh oil (Tube 1), while used "x" oil (Tube 3) has thinned out decidedly.

"If you want the low down on a motor oil, these little steel balls certainly give it to you. Maybe they'll hand you a jolt like they did me."

Put in a fill of New Iso-Vis. When it's time to drain, go into any Standard Oil Service Station or dealer and use this oil from your own car in the Ball and Bottle Test.

This proof will convince you!

RESULTS
of Indianapolis Speedway Tests,
Certified by A. A. A.

1 Iso-Vis Motor Oil did not thin out from dilution.
2 During the entire test of 9,000 miles, the engines and chassis of all cars were lubricated effectively.

3 Oil Added: only 63/100 of a quart—average for all cars—of Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy) in 1,000 mile test at 30 miles per hour.

We Believe in Brainerd

THERE is no news in the announcement that The Dispatch appears with this issue under new management. The story "broke" August 17th when Mr. F. W. Wieland told the readers of the paper of the sale of the newspaper property to the present owners. That it was a wrench for Mr. Wieland to part with property which he had carefully handled for almost a half century, giving to the community one of the best newspapers in the state of Minnesota, is certain, but continued ill health compelled a change. This was the sole reason for selling The Dispatch and in making disposition of the property Mr. Wieland was guided not alone by what he considered a fair price for The Dispatch, but he sought to place it in the care of those who would conduct it along lines which he had followed for almost half a century. That we hope to succeed in pleasing the people as successfully in the future as Mr. Wieland has done in the past is our earnest desire. That changes will come with the changing years and conditions we all know, but broadly speaking we will be satisfied if we can equal the record made by the retiring owner, plus the natural advancement of the times. To Mr. Wieland and his son, W. F. Wieland, we wish to acknowledge our thanks for the many courtesies extended us during the negotiations for the purchase of the property as well as since its transfer. A statement that they met every situation in a straightforward and helpful manner is not necessary, but we wish to make it, nevertheless.

The future success of The Dispatch lies largely with the people of Brainerd and Crow Wing county. We expect to conduct the newspaper in the future with an eye to the betterment of the community where we expect to make our home, and we earnestly desire to do our full share in the advancement of the city and surrounding country. We came to Brainerd after inspection of newspapers in several states and we feel that first favorable impressions will be more than fulfilled. It quite frequently happens that good, energetic citizens often fail to realize the opportunities right at home and it often happens, too, that they accept with complacency all the advantages which surround them without a realization of their good fortune. It required but a few hours for a decision on our part to "buy in Brainerd" if we could do so, and later investigation has served to confirm our first decision.

We are well satisfied with Brainerd and its opportunities.

Destroying Surplus

THERE is something wicked about destroying a surplus of anything. The housewife who has a surplus on hand after serving a stated number of guests may use it in other meals of the household. The camp cooks at Camp Ripley know in advance the number of men to be fed and are governed by such strict regulations that not even a can of peas is left after all have been served.

When Nature grows bountiful and creates a bumper crop whether it is wheat, cotton, corn, melons, potatoes, hay, etc., the surplus should never be destroyed. Tourists have told the Dispatch of canyons and ravines in the west where surplus melons have been dumped and destroyed to keep up a price scale.

The Federal Farm Board bought wheat last year and pegged the price, but the price refused to stay pegged! The huge surplus carried depresses the market and its disposal is causing more trouble than its accumulation. The idea, however, of destroying this wheat surplus, would be abhorred by any one.

The cotton crop has been so large that domestic and foreign wants will be more than satisfied and the surplus on hand has depressed prices. A movement has started to destroy the surplus.

The Dispatch published the views of Sir Henri Deterding, a famous economist and oil magnate, and he sums it up briefly and authoritatively when he says that nobody has the right to destroy what others need.

"When the producer produces too much and consequently is faced with a price for his products on which he loses, he can only do one right thing, namely to try and increase consumption," says Sir Henri.

There has been an over-production of oil, but no one has ever suggested stopping further exploration, or tearing down the equipment and destroying the wells. However, Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas are trying the experiment of temporarily checking production, but not destroying the product.

Keeping Drunken Drivers Out of Traffic

A PROBLEM to be found in every community is that of the drunken driver.

Everyone agrees with Mayor Charles H. Bartlett of Evanston, Illinois, that the drunken, careless, reckless, and law breaking driver should be taken off the street and kept off. He should be severely punished if he injures or kills anyone. There can be no argument on this subject because everyone feels, almost instinctively, that such measures are absolutely necessary for safety.

Public sentiment as stated by Mayor Bartlett is becoming increasingly more insistent that adequate measures be taken to make the highway safe for traffic. Evidence of this is seen in the increasing number of states enacting drivers' license laws with examination of new drivers and other effective traffic measures, such as are recommended for adoption by the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety.

Dangerous drivers take more American lives than dangerous criminals. There are three times as many traffic deaths annually as there are homicides.

Here in Brainerd police are vigilant, quickly arresting men who seek to drive while under the influence of liquor. The State Highway Patrol operating from Brainerd as its base has a number of these drunken driver arrests to its credit. Every effort is being made in town and country to make the highways safe for travel, to protect the law abiding motorists and the pedestrians who observe traffic rules.

Raise Fine Steers

C. W. KOERING came to town last week with a number of fine steers he had bought from Ben Myers of South Long Lake township, whose farm is located south of the Elder place.

The group bought numbered 15 and weights ranged from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds. The Shorthorns have thrived on Crow Wing county grass and other feed and were sleek and well kept, attesting to the care exercised in feeding them.

It indicates that cattle raising is an important industry in Crow Wing county and that the land of lakes and farms is an ideal one for such activities of the farmers.

The stormy petrel of the American fighting services—Major General Smedley D. Butler, hard-hitting "leatherneck," energetic civic reformer of Philadelphia, and frank critic of dignitaries, domestic or foreign—is going to be "out" on October 1. "Out," we did say, but not down. Nothing short of death will down the man who has liked nothing better than a fight during all of the 33 years that he has been with the Marine Corps. President Hoover has stated that he would permit General Butler, at 50, to retire from the Corps, whose many records of glorious accomplishment he has helped inscribe with daring, if the battling veteran of numerous campaigns will be readily available in time of war. As if it was necessary to make such a provision with the "Fighting Quaker," idol of the sea-soldiers.

An even ruder Judge held Hilda in $5,000 bail as a material witness.

Police are searching for more bodies in the belief Pierson, through correspondence with many women, killed others.

Follies Girl in Jam Again

Just because she happens to know "Tough Willie" McCabe (right) the rude New York police arrested and questioned Hilda Ferguson (left), former featured Follies girl. Hilda says she doesn't know a thing about the fight in a Gotham speakeasy during which McCabe, notorious gambler, was stabbed several times, but the rude police think differently. An even-ruder Judge held Hilda in $5,000 bail as a material witness.

VETERAN FORWARD WALL, AN AID TO GOPHER FOOTBALL

MINNESOTA HOPES FOR GOOD SEASON ARE ZOOMING HIGH

HEADED BY CAPT. MUNN, VETERANS RETURN FOR EVERY POSITION ON TEAM

HASS AND SOMERS MAY HANDLE MOST OF THE SIGNAL CALLING FOR SQUAD

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Hopes of Gopher sports enthusiasts again zoomed high with the opening of another football season and this year with good cause.

Last year a new head coach, Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler, and a new staff greeted a squad bereft of a first string line. This year a veteran forward wall, the same that held a Stanford team scoreless, is ready. This line now has the benefit of a year's training under Tad Wieman, head line coach, whereas last year his system was new to them.

Although six of the unusually large number of last year's backfield candidates are lost to this year's team, an equal number of star performers return. To this nucleus another half a dozen promising sophomore backs will be added.

Headed by Captain Clarence Munn, all-conference guard and one of the strongest punters in the Big Ten, veterans return for every position on the team.

Jack Manders, Milbank, S. D., and Quentin Burdick, Williston, N. D., will fight it out for the fullback position. Both saw service last year.

Walter Haas, St. Paul, and Pete Somers will handle most of the signal calling unless either Harry Hall, Little Falls, or My Uble, Minneapolis, present good arguments in their favor. Haas was called on most frequently at the quarterback post last year. Somers was impressive in spring practice. Uble is one of the best forward passers on the squad. Walter Hargreaves, Rochester, and George Champlin, Cresco, Ia., are other candidates.

Kenneth MacDougall, of Ishpeming, Mich., and Sam Swartz, Minneapolis, will undoubtedly perform the major share of work at the halfback position but Gerald Griffen, Devils Lake, N. D., Rudolph Tometz, Biwabik, John Haas, St. Paul, Bob Finger, Minneapolis, Ed Cleary, St. Paul, Frank Alexander, Glenwood, and several sophomores will be in the running.

Five ends are included among returning lettermen. Jake Ohlsen, Laverne; Earl Nelson and Al Krezowski, Minneapolis; Hal Anderson, Owatonna, and Mervin Dillner, Duluth, all took part in major competition last year. Brad Robinson, Baraboo, Wis., Ralph Platon, Fargo, N. D., and Bob Tucker, Minneapolis, juniors, will be available as will three candidates from the freshman squad.

Lack of high calibre reserve tackles to alternate with Pat Boland and Marshall Wells will be one of the problems to meet this autumn. Boland, a 215-pound veteran from Duluth, will be heavier this year and so will his running mate, Wells, a Minneapolis boy.

Tackles from the 1930 reserve group will be Howard Kroil, International Falls; Howard Nichols, St. Cloud; John Samson, Omaha, Neb.; Merle Newberg, Willmar, and George Piepras of Laverne. Sophomores of promise are Ray Willahan, Sisseton, S. D.; Dean Boyce, Mankato; Bob Wiley, of Minneapolis, and Phil Sperry, Western Springs, Ill.

Reserve guards from 1930 include Jim Dennerly, Aitkin; Ellsworth Harpole, Minneapolis; John Waligora, St. Paul, and Kenneth Gay, a powerful youth from Moose Lake. Sophomore candidates include George Kakela, of Eveleth; Harold Hatten, LaCrosse, Wis.; Bill Jantzen, White Bear, and Art Meyers, Minneapolis.

Lloyd Stein, Two Harbors, will return to center position and will receive his chief competition from Roy Oen, Thief River Falls, who is playing his first season, and Morris Greenburg, Minneapolis, a reserve center in 1930. Leroy Merikham, Minneapolis, and Lloyd Gerischer, St. Paul, are other possibilities.

LEAGUE-LEADING ST. PAUL SAINTS HOLD THEIR PACE

TRIM COLUMBUS CLUB 6 TO 2 IN GAME NEVER IN DOUBT AFTER 2ND INNING

KANSAS CITY BLUES WIN FREE-SWINGING TILT WITH INDIANAPOLIS, 10 TO 9

(By United Press)

The league-leading St. Paul Saints held their pace yesterday in the American Association, trimming the Columbus club, 6 to 2, in a game that was never in doubt after the second inning, when St. Paul slingers fell on the offerings of Brown, Redbird hurler, to score four runs. Murphy was the winning pitcher, allowing Columbus batsmen 9 hits, but keeping them well scattered.

The Kansas City Blues, 13½ games behind the Saints in second place, won a free-swinging tilt with the Indianapolis Indians, 10 to 9, although getting only twelve hits as compared to 16 for the Indians. Burwell and Smith toiled on the mound for the Indians, and the Kansas City moundmen were Donohue, Meley and Sanders.

In the other game of the day Milwaukee won from the Louisville Colonels, 5 to 3. Knott was the winning pitcher, and Mays suffered the defeat. Toledo at Minneapolis was postponed on account of wet grounds.

OPPOSE SOUTH SIDE IN PLAY-OFF GAMES TO START TOMORROW

FRANKS, OFF FORM, RELIEVED BY RUSH IN FOURTH, TEAM LOSES, 9 TO 3

CITY BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TO BE DECIDED IN SERIES THIS WEEK

A play-off series is necessary to decide the city league baseball championship between South Side and Northeast.

The first game will be played tomorrow at 5:45 P. M. at the municipal grounds, the second game Friday and if a third game is required, it will be played Sunday afternoon.

The series was forced by Northeast tracking South Side for a 9 to 3 victory last evening to win the second half of the league. South Side won the first half.

Franks, who has not been turned back by Northeast previously this season, was considerably off form, due principally to being overworked, the South Side hurler having pitched a game in the southern part of the state Sunday. He was hit hard and when Stanley ended the assault in the fourth by driving a triple into left field scoring two men, Franks was relieved by Bush.

Richmond, Northeast moundster, held South Side to three hits.

One of the sensational moments of the game came in the first inning, when Wayne speared, one-handed, Nutting's long drive into right field.

Complete hitting statistics for the second half of the league follow:

DEAN IS MOST VALUABLE PLAYER IN TEXAS LEAGUE

SELECTED ACCORDING TO TABULATION OF A LEAGUE-WIDE VOTE

HOUSTON BUFFS PITCHER WON 25 GAMES, LED LEAGUE IN STRIKEOUTS

Houston, Tex., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean star hurler of the Houston Buffs, was selected as the most valuable player in the Texas league by sports writers, according to a tabulation of a league-wide vote. Dean, who has won 25 games and led the league in strikeouts, received a total of 33 points, more than twice as many as his nearest competitor, Cuy Selph, second baseman of the Buffs, who piled up 16 points.

Dean and Selph were the only players in the league named for first place choices. Radcliff, Shreveport, McCabe, Fort Worth, and Taylor, Beaumont, were next in order.

Dean will receive $100, donated by club owners of the league. Presentation will be made Labor Day when the Buffs play Beaumont at Houston. Dean is property of the St. Louis Cardinals.

CHARLEY RETZLAFF TO MEET SEKYRA AT NEW YORK TONIGHT

10 ROUND BOUT IS SET FOR QUEENSBORO STADIUM

DULUTHIAN RETZLAFF IS RATED AS BEST HEAVYWEIGHT PROSPECT IN THE COUNTRY

New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Charley Retzlaff, Duluth, Minn., heavyweight, and Joe Sekyra, Dayton, O., will meet in a ten round bout in the Queensboro stadium here tonight.

The contest was originally scheduled to be held last Tuesday, but rain forced a postponement until Thursday, when the fight was again washed out.

Retzlaff, rated by many critics as the best heavyweight prospect in the country, will be placed in the front rank of the challengers seeking Max Schmeling's title if he scores a knockout over the clever Ohio boy.

Two years ago Sekyra gave Schmeling such a close battle for ten rounds that one of the judges voted in his favor.

OBSCURE PLAYERS AND YOUNGSTERS DOMINATE NATIONAL

ONLY ONE PLAYER, JACK WESTLAND, GOES OVER IN PAR 71 IN YESTERDAY'S PLAY

A STROKE BEHIND WESTLAND WAS GUS MORELAND, 20, DALLAS COTTON CLERK

By GEORGE KIRKSEY (United Press Staff Correspondent) Beverly Country Club, Chicago, Sept. 1.—Shooting a magnificent 70 despite adverse playing conditions, Johnny Lehman, Chicago, 1930 Western Amateur champion, today became the first player in the National Amateur Tournament to break par of 71. He assumed a lead among the early finishers with a 36-hole score of 148.

Lehman, former Big Ten champion when he played with Purdue, went out in 36, even par, and came back in 34, one under par.

Lehman's card:

Out	354	543	444	36

Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston, 1929 champion, Minneapolis, had virtually eliminated himself from qualifying in the National Amateur tournament.

Johnson was five over par after 10

holes and only a sub-par golf could save him.

Beverly Country Club, Chicago, Sept. 1.—With obscure players and youngsters dominating the leaders and many hitherto prominent contenders on the border-line of elimination, the National Amateur Golf Championship advanced today to the final 18-holes of the 36-hole qualifying round.

By nightfall the field of 135 players will be reduced to the 32 low scorers who will play the first and second rounds of match play tomorrow.

Over this tightly trapped and treacherous course, only one player, Jack Westland, Chicago bond salesman, was able to flirt yesterday with par 71. First to tee off, Westland set a course record for the first nine holes when he had four birdies for a 33, three under par. Coming in he slipped slightly, but wound up with a 72.

Westland won the French amateur title in 1929 when he went abroad to play in the British open, but arrived too late and was disqualified. He took the next year at across the channel and annexed U. S. French championship. He has won the Chicago district title three times and was runner-up for the intercollegiate title when he represented the University of Washington in 1925.

One stroke behind Westland came Gus Moreland, 20-year-old Dallas, Tex., cotton clerk. On his first trip outside the Lone Star State he was able to show some of the golf he exhibited when he won the Texas state title and eight other invitation tournaments the past year.

The 13 leaders at the start of the second round were:

Jack Westland, Chicago, 72.

ONE-ROUND KNOCKOUTS AND TWO-ROUND BOUT WITH "CYCLONE" THOMPSON

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Three one-round knockouts and a two-round bout with "Cyclone" Thompson, Pacific northwest heavyweight champion, were added last night to Jack Dempsey's "exhibition tour" victories. Officials said 12,370 persons paid $21,880 to see the former champion's exhibition. It was said to be the largest crowd ever to attend an indoor event here.

Elgin Taylor, 188 pounds, of Spokane, was the first victim. He lasted slightly more than a minute. In the next fight, Dempsey knocked out Tee Richmond, 190, of Thewelah, Wash., after sending him to the canvas twice for counts of eight and nine.

Jack Manders, Milbank, S. D., and Quentin Burdick, Williston, N. D., will fight it out for the fullback position. Both saw service last year.

Walter Hass, St. Paul, and Pete Somers will handle most of the signal calling unless either Harry Hall, Little Falls, or My Uble, Minneapolis, present good arguments in their favor. Hass was called on most frequently at the quarterback post last year. Somers was impressive in spring practice. Uble is one of the best forward passers on the squad. Walter Hargreaves, Rochester, and George Champlin, Cresco, Ia., are other candidates.

Kenneth MacDougall, of Ishpeming, Mich., and Sam Swartz, Minneapolis, will undoubtedly perform the major share of work at the halfback position. But Gerald Griffin, Devils Lake, N. D., Rudolph Tometz, Biwabik, John Hass, St. Paul, Bob Finger, Minneapolis, Ed Cleary, St. Paul, Frank Alexander, Gienoe, and several sophomores will be in the running.

Five ends are included among returning lettermen. Jake Ohlsen, Laverne; Earl Nelson and Al Krezowski, Minneapolis; Hal Anderson, Owatonna, and Mervin Dillner, Duluth, all took part in major competition last year. Brad Robinson, Baraboo, Wis., Ralph Platon, Fargo, N. D., and Bob Tucker, Minneapolis, juniors, will be available as will three candidates from the freshman squad.

Lack of high calibre reserve tackles to alternate with Pat Boland and Marshall Wells will be one of the problems to meet this autumn. Boland, a 215-pound veteran from Duluth, will be heavier this year and so will his running mate, Wells, a Minneapolis boy.

Tackles from the 1930 reserve group will be Howard Kroil, International Falls; Howard Nichols, St. Cloud; John Samson, Omaha, Neb.; Merle Newberg, Willmar, and George Piepras of Laverne. Sophomores of promise are Ray Willahan, Sisseton, S. D.; Dean Boyce, Mankato; Bob Wiley, of Minneapolis, and Phil Spery, Western Springs, Ill.

Reserve guards from 1930 include Jim Dennerly, Aitkin; Ellsworth Harpole, Minneapolis; John Waligora, St. Paul, and Kenneth Gay, a powerful youth from Moose Lake. Sophomore candidates include George Kakela, of Eveleth; Harold Haiden, LaCrosse, Wis.; Bill Jantzen, White Bear, and Art Meyers, Minneapolis.

Lloyd Stein, Two Harbors, will return to center position and will receive his chief competition from Roy Oen, Thief River Falls, who is playing his first season, and Morris Greenburg, Minneapolis, a reserve center in 1930. Leroy Merikham, Minneapolis, and Lloyd Gerischer, St. Paul, are other possibilities.

LEAGUE-LEADING ST. PAUL SAINTS HOLD THEIR PACE

TRIM COLUMBUS CLUB 6 TO 2 IN GAME NEVER IN DOUBT AFTER 2ND INNING

KANSAS CITY BLUES WIN FREE-SWINGING TILT WITH INDIANAPOLIS, 10 TO 9 (By United Press)

The league-leading St. Paul Saints held their pace yesterday in the American Association, trimming the Columbus club, 6 to 2, in a game that was never in doubt after the second inning, when St. Paul slugged off the offerings of Brown, Redbird hurler, to score four runs. Murphy was the winning pitcher, allowing Columbus batsmen 9 hits, but keeping them well scattered.

The Kansas City Blues, 13½ games behind the Saints in second place, won a free-swinging tilt with the Indianapolis Indians, 10 to 9, although getting only twelve hits as compared to 16 for the Indians. Burwell and Smith toiled on the mound for the Indians, and the Kansas City moundsmen were Donohue, Maley and Sanders.

In the other game of the day Milwaukee won from the Louisville Colonels, 5 to 3. Knott was the winning pitcher, and Mays suffered the defeat. Toledo at Minneapolis was postponed on account of wet grounds.

OPPOSE SOUTH SIDE IN PLAY-OFF GAMES TO START TOMORROW

FRANKS, OFF FORM, RELIEVED BY RUSH IN FOURTH, TEAM LOSES, 9 TO 3

CITY BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TO BE DECIDED IN SERIES THIS WEEK

A play-off series is necessary to decide the city league baseball championship between South Side and Northeast.

The first game will be played tomorrow at 5:45 P. M. at the municipal grounds, the second game Friday and if a third game is required, it will be played Sunday afternoon.

The series was forced by Northeast cracking South Side for a 9 to 3 victory last evening to win the second half of the league. South Side won the first half.

Franks, who has not been turned back by Northeast previously this season, was considerably off form, due principally to being overworked, the South Side hurler having pitched a game in the southern part of the state Sunday. He was hit hard and when Stanley ended the assault in the fourth by driving a triple into left field scoring two men, Franks was relieved by Bush.

Richmond, Northeast moundster, held South Side to three hits.

One of the sensational moments of the game came in the first inning, when Wayne speared, one-handed, Nutting's long drive into right field.

Complete hitting statistics for the second half of the league follow:

DEAN IS MOST VALUABLE PLAYER IN TEXAS LEAGUE

SELECTED ACCORDING TO TABULATION OF A LEAGUE-WIDE VOTE

HOUSTON BUFFS PITCHER WON 25 GAMES, LED LEAGUE IN STRIKEOUTS

Houston, Tex., Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean star hurler of the Houston Buffs, was selected as the most valuable player in the Texas league by sports writers, according to a tabulation of a league-wide vote. Dean, who has won 25 games and leads the league in strikeouts, received a total of 33 points, more than twice as many as his nearest competitor, Cury Selph, second baseman of the Buffs, who piled up 16 points.

Dean and Selph were the only players in the league named for first place. Rodcliff, Shreveport, McCabe, Fort Worth, and Taylor, Beaumont were next in order.

Dean will receive $100, donated by club owners of the league. Presentation will be made Labor Day when the Buffs play Beaumont at Houston. Dean is property of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The decline was shared by the sexes, and there are still more women than men in Scotland. The number of males this year is 2,225,937 and women 2,516,617.

CHARLEY RETZLAFF TO MEET SEKYRA AT NEW YORK TONIGHT

10 ROUND BOUT IS SET FOR QUEENSBORO STADIUM

DULUTHIAN RETZLAFF IS RATED AS BEST HEAVYWEIGHT PROSPECT IN THE COUNTRY

New York, Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—Charley Retzlaff, Duluth, Minn., heavyweight, and Joe Sekyra, Dayton, O., will meet in a ten round bout in the Queensboro stadium here tonight.

The contest was originally scheduled to be held last Tuesday, but rain forced a postponement until Thursday, when the fight was again washed out. Retzlaff, rated by many critics as the best heavyweight prospect in the country, will be placed in the front rank of the challengers seeking Max Schmeling's title if he scores a knockout over the clever Ohio boy.

Two years ago Sekyra gave Schmeling such a close battle for ten rounds that one of the judges voted in his favor.

OBSOLETE PLAYERS AND YOUNGSTERS DOMINATE NATIONAL

ONLY ONE PLAYER, JACK WESTLAND, GOES OVER IN PAR 71 IN YESTERDAY'S PLAY

A STROKE BEHIND WESTLAND WAS GUS MORELAND, 20, DALLAS COTTON CLERK

By GEORGE KIRKSEY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Beverly Country Club, Chicago, Sept. 1.—Shooting a magnificent 70 despite adverse playing conditions, Johnny Lehman, Chicago, 1930 Western Amateur champion, today became the first player in the National Amateur Tournament to break par of 71. He assumed a lead among the early finishers with a 36-hole score of 148.

Lehman, former Big Ten champion when he played with Purdue, went out in 36, even par, and came back in 34, one under par.

Lehman's card:

Out	354	543	444	36
In	353	535	435	34
Lester Bolstad, Minneapolis, shot a 79, eight over par, making his 36-hole total 153. His card was:
Out	463	553	554	40
In	352	545	447	39

Beverly Country Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston, 1929 champion, Minneapolis, had virtually eliminated himself from qualifying in the National Amateur tournament.

Johnston was five over par after 10

holes and only a sub-par golf could save him.

Beverly Country Club, Chicago, Sept. 1.—With obscure players and youngsters dominating the leaders and many hitherto prominent contenders on the border-line of elimination, the National Amateur Golf Championship advanced today to the final 18-holes of the 36-hole qualifying round.

By nightfall the field of 135 players will be reduced to the 32 low scorers who will play the first and second rounds of match play tomorrow.

Over this tightly trapped and treacherous course, only one player, Jack Westland, Chicago bond salesman, was able to first yesterday with par 71. First to tee off, Westland set a course record for the first nine holes when he had four birdies for a 33, three under par. Coming in he slipped slightly, but wound up with a 72.

Westland won the French amateur title in 1929 when he went abroad to play in the British open, but arrived too late and was disqualified. He took the next heat across the channel and annexed the French championship. He has won the Chicago district title three times and was runner-up for the intercollegiate title when he represented the University of Washington in 1925.

One stroke behind Westland came Gus Moreland, 20-year-old Dallas, Tex., cotton clerk. On his first trip outside the Lone Star State on any kind of expedition, Moreland was able to show some of the golf he exhibited when he won the Texas state title and eight other invitation tournaments the past year.

The 13 leaders at the start of the second round were:
Jack Westland, Chicago, 72.

JACK DEMPSEY'S EXHIBITION TOUR IS "GOING GOOD"

ONE-ROUND KNOCKOUTS AND TWO-ROUND BOUT WITH "CYCLONE" THOMPSON

ARE ADDED TO FORMER CHAMPION'S "EXHIBITION TOUR" VICTORIES

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—Three one-round knockouts and a two-round bout with "Cyclone" Thompson, Pacific northwest heavyweight champion, were added last night to Jack Dempsey's "exhibition tour" victories. Officials said 12,370 persons paid $21,880 to see the former champion's exhibition. It was said to be the largest crowd ever to attend an indoor event here.

Elgin Taylor, 188 pounds, of Spokane, was the first victim. He lasted slightly more than a minute. In the next fight, Dempsey knocked out Tee Richmond, 196, of Thewelah, Wash., after sending him to the canvas twice for counts of eight and nine.

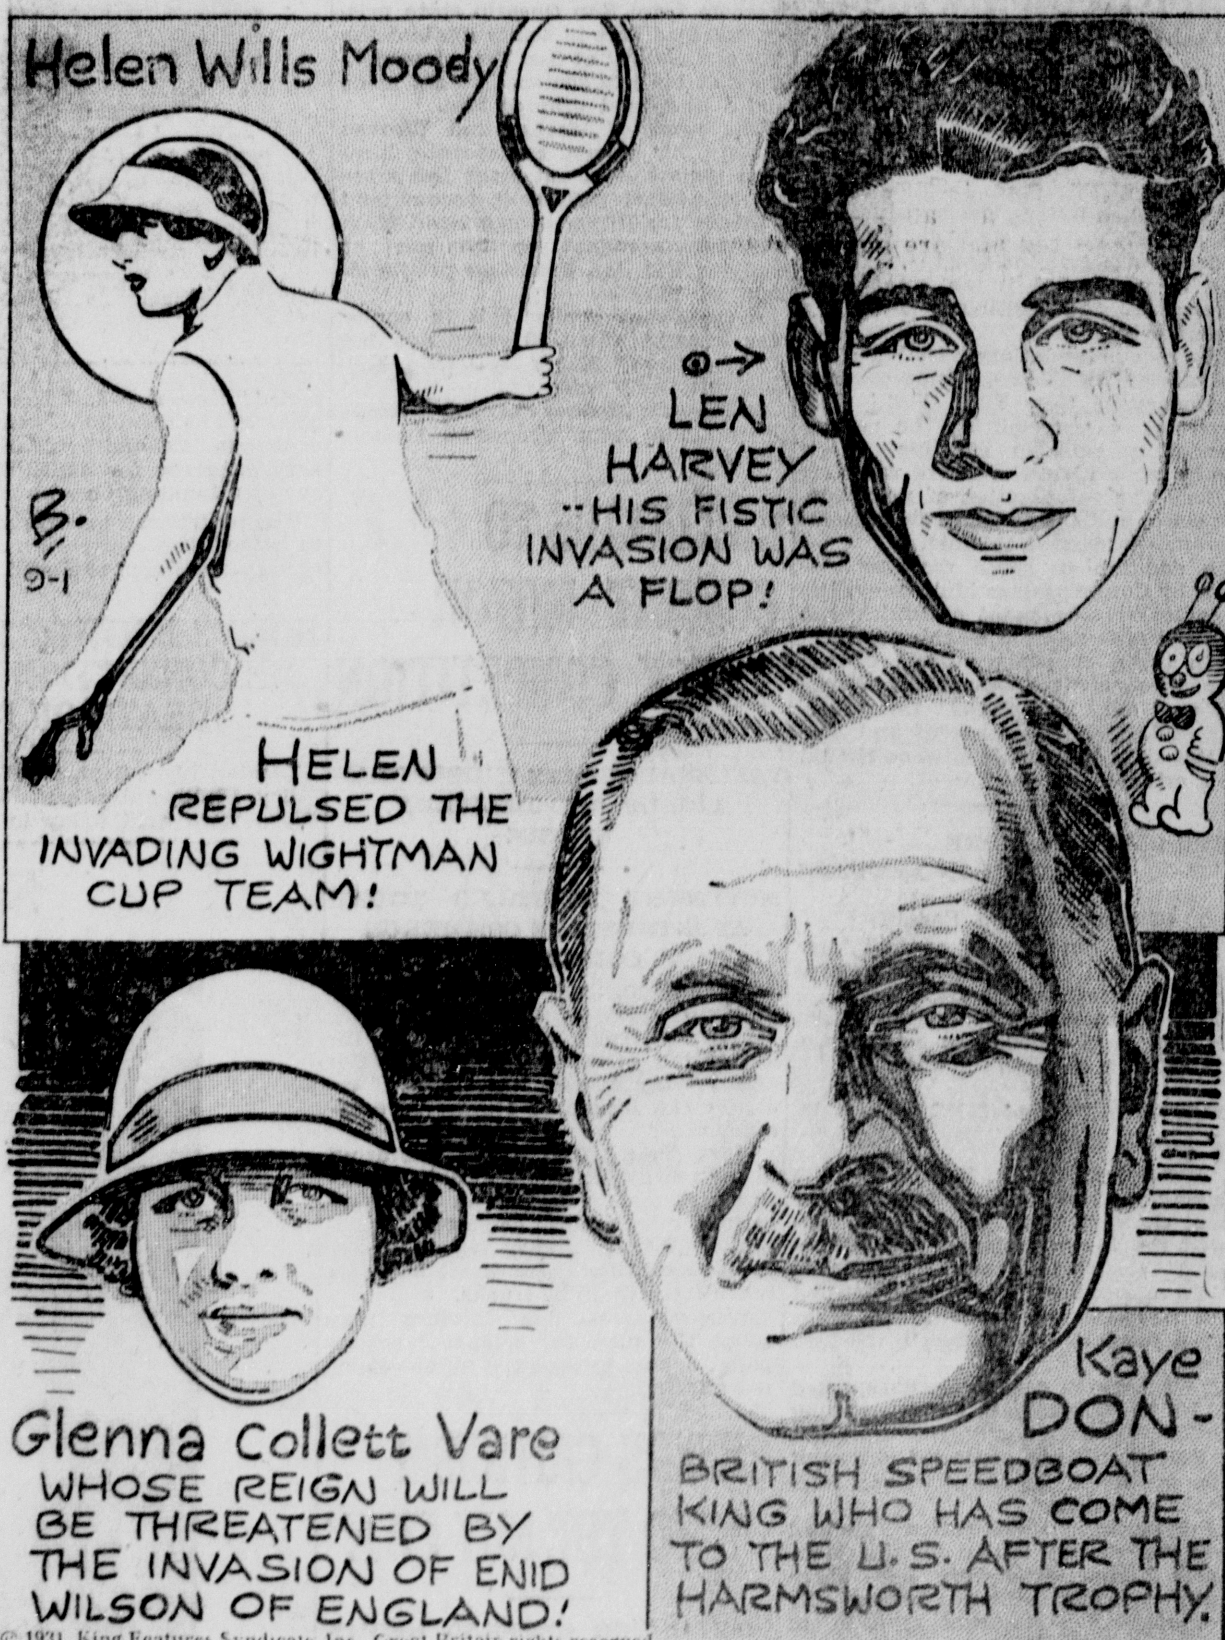

Bill Nearing, 215, of Kellogg, Idaho, was the third victim knocked out. He lasted half a round.

"Cyclone" Thompson, 189, of Yakima, Wash., stayed two rounds with Dempsey when Jack appeared content to spar with him. Thompson was well marked up when the two rounds were completed, but was still standing.

ACCORD TERMS BETWEEN HOLY SEE AND ITALY GIVEN

RETURN BOTH PARTIES TO POSITION THEY HELD BEFORE DISSENSION

WILL ASSERT NO INCOMPATIBILITY EXISTED BETWEEN THE PARTIES

By THOMAS B. MORGAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Vatican City, Sept. 1.—The terms of the accord ending the dispute between the Holy See and the Vatican government to be officially announced later this week, return both parties to the position they held before the dissension, it was revealed today.

The accord will assert that no incompatibility exists between Fascism and Catholicism, the United Press learned.

Under the terms, members of the Azione Cattolica, laymen's organization which drew the government's ire, will in future be permitted to belong to the Fascist party.

Permission to members of the Azione Cattolica to belong to the Fascist party was included in the terms, since the Catholic organization agreed to changes in its administration by abolishing its national executive committee.

It in future will be under local diocesan control, each bishop being in charge in his area. The Azione Cattolica furthermore agreed to limit itself to purely religious activities. None of the former heads of the Catholic political party will hold offices in the reorganized Azione Cattolica, the terms say.

Most of the Catholic clubs in northern Italy have reopened, reports said.

In Rome, however, no club has yet reopened and the Knights of Columbus were still closed with no intimation of when they will resume. Their establishments, chiefly athletic fields, were closed when the trouble broke out early in the summer.

The breach which threatened for a time to cause severance of diplomatic relations between the church and the state, grew out of charges by Fascists that the Azione Cattolica was becoming a menace to the Fascist party and becoming active in politics, instead of confining itself to purely religious activities.

URGE REVISION OF SULLIVAN LAW

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Drastic recommendations for revision of the Sullivan law to curb distribution of firearms to criminals and racketeers was recommended in an emergency message to the legislature today by Governor Roosevelt.

The recommendations were based on the advice of Police Commissioner Mulrooney of New York City. The governor, in transmitting the recommendations said no effective check can be made upon the sale of weapons without the co-operation of neighboring states and the federal government. He offered to seek this aid.

In addition to seven recommendations by Commissioner Mulrooney, the governor recommended outlawing the sale and possession of machine guns.

"In times of peace outside of the armed forces these weapons of offense are used only by outlaws," the governor said. "Their possession and sale in this state by private citizens should be a criminal offense."

INVESTIGATE SLAYING
OF MARY BAKER

Clarksburg, W. Va., Sept. 1.—The Slaying of Mary Baker, pretty government clerk in Washington, D. C., entered the investigation of the "Bluebeard" matrimonial activities of Harry F. Powers today when it was learned that Washington detectives were seeking a possible link between the two cases.

A Washington detective was reported to be in Clarksburg today, seeking further information of the activities of Powers, alleged confessed slayer of five, on April 11, 1930, when Miss Baker was slain.

Preliminary investigation showed that one of the letters to Mrs. Asta Buick Eicher, who with her three children were believed hanged by Powers, was postmarked at 5 P. M. on that date in Clarksburg.

The description of the alleged assailant of Miss Baker whose bullet riddled body was found along a ditch in Arlington, was said to tally with that of Powers.

City Detective Carl Southern talked with Washington investigators in connection with the Baker slaying and was understood to have assured them of his help.

The capital slaying, one of the most sensational unsolved killings in Washington, was brought into the Powers case when preparations were being made for speedy arraignment of Powers for the killing of the four members of the Eicher family and Mrs. Dorothy A. Pressler Lemke, Worcester, Mass.

Judge John C. Southern was in conference with District Attorney Will E. Morris and it was understood the question of a special term of court for Powers' trial was being considered. Morris indicated no decision would be forthcoming until late today.

CO-OPERATIVES ATTACK SHILLING

CHARGE HE MADE MISLEADING STATEMENTS ABOUT FEDERAL FARM BOARD

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Minnesota co-operatives today charged in a formal statement that W. F. Shilling, Northfield, Minn., member of the federal farm board, had made misleading statements concerning the board's methods of doing business.

Minnesota congressmen and co-operative leaders wired President Hoover on Aug. 24 saying that a movement was under way which eventually would destroy regional co-operatives. Shilling replied that the farm board had not required co-operative organizations to sign over to the board the control of their personnel and policies before they could borrow funds provided by the farm marketing act.

The statement today said the co-operative leaders have documentary proof to show untrue the statement of Shilling that the farm board has never made, does not know, and I hope never will make, as a condition of loans to financially sound organizations that supervision be had over the policies and personnel.

"We think the time has come when members of the federal farm board should fairly and truthfully discuss with the producers of this country the activities of that board," the statement said. "It does not help the situation for the federal farm board to send its members about the country at the expense of the taxpayers, making misleading statements concerning the board and its activities and endeavoring to make out every honest critic of the federal farm board as the enemy of the farmer and of co-operative marketing."

MOONEY ASKS LIFE SENTENCE BE SET ASIDE

RENEWS FIGHT TO REGAIN FREEDOM FROM SAN QUENTIN STATE PRISON

FILES SUIT IN EQUITY AGAINST CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Thos. J. Mooney, renewing his fight to gain freedom from San Quentin state prison, has filed suit in equity against the city and county of San Francisco asking that his life sentence be set aside and a new trial granted him.

The cases of Mooney and Warren Billings, his alleged confederate, have been almost dormant since the state supreme court refused to recommend a pardon for Billings last winter. Both men were convicted on charges of bombing the San Francisco preparedness day parade.

A somewhat similar suit in equity was brought about 10 years ago but "got nowhere," Harry McKenzie, Billings' attorney, said.

In the suit, Mooney charged the case against him was "conceived fraudulently."

RAILROADS TO COMBAT MOTOR TRUCK COMPETITION

WILL INAUGURATE WIDESPREAD PICKUP AND DELIVERY SYSTEM

MOVEMENT REVEALED TODAY AT INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Washington, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The first concerted effort of railroads to combat motor truck competition by inauguration of a widespread pickup and delivery system was revealed today at the interstate commerce commission.

More than 100 railroads operating in the southwest united in a joint tariff for store-door service on less-than-carload merchandise shipments, effective October 1. They expect to recover about 75 per cent of the business taken from them by trucks.

Western trunk line carriers may adopt the plan for competitive purposes, but at present the northwest is not affected.

POSTMASTER GENERAL BROWN MINIMIZES CHARGES OF REP. M. J. MAAS

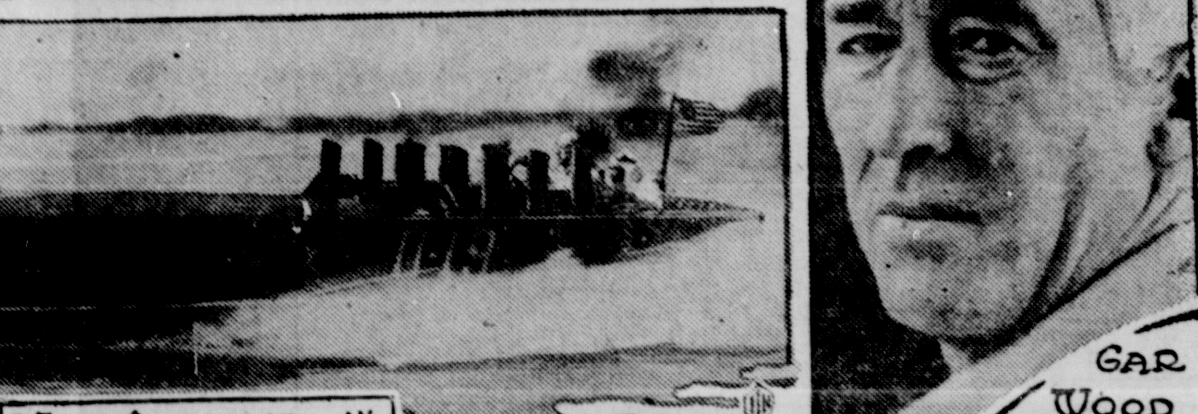

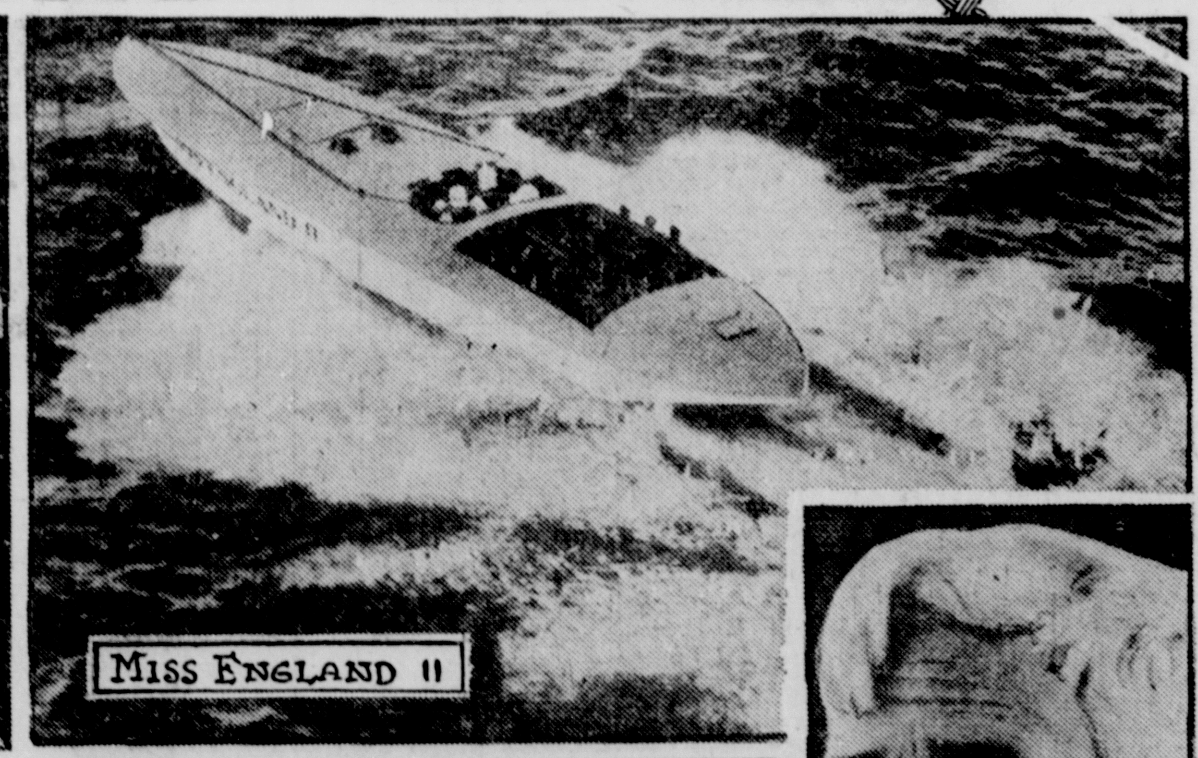

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Charges of Rep. M. J. Maas of Minnesota that excessive rentals are paid for postal leases were answered by Postmaster General Walter F. Brown today in a statement referring the criticism "to the nut file."

"Postmaster generals have constantly urged that the government own its own postoffice rather than lease them, but have been unable to persuade congress to this point of view," the cabinet officer said.

Maas, while investigating San Francisco leases in last Saturday, declared he had uncovered evidence he will use in a demand for Postmaster General Brown's removal. He cited the $108,000 annual rental for the San Francisco ferry building postoffice as an example of alleged excessive lease payments he had discovered in many cities.

ACCORD TERMS BETWEEN HOLY SEE AND ITALY GIVEN

RETURN BOTH PARTIES TO POSITION THEY HELD BEFORE DISSENSION

WILL ASSERT NO INCOMPATIBILITY EXISTED BETWEEN THE PARTIES

By THOMAS B. MORGAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Vatican City, Sept. 1.—The terms of the accord ending the dispute between the Holy See and the Vatican government to be officially announced later this week, return both parties to the position they held before the dissension, it was revealed today.

The accord will assert that no incompatibility exists between Fascism and Catholicism, the United Press learned.

Under the terms, members of the Azione Cattolica, laymen's organization which drew the government's ire, will in future be permitted to belong to the Fascist party.

Permission to members of the Azione Cattolica to belong to the Fascist party was included in the terms, since the Catholic organization agreed to changes in its administration by abolishing its national executive committee.

In future will be under local diocesan control, each bishop being in charge in his area. The Azione Cattolica furthermore agreed to limit itself to purely religious activities. None of the former heads of the Catholic political party will hold offices in the reorganized Azione Cattolica, the terms will say.

Most of the Catholic clubs in northern Italy have reopened, reports said. In Rome, however, no club has yet reopened and the Knights of Columbus were still closed with no intimation of when they will resume. Their establishments, chiefly athletic fields, were closed when the trouble broke out early in the summer.

The breach which threatened for a time to cause severance of diplomatic relations between the church and the state, grew out of charges by Fascists that the Azione Cattolica was becoming a menace to the Fascist party and becoming active in politics, instead of confining itself to purely religious activities.

URGE REVISION OF SULLIVAN LAW

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Drastic recommendations for revision of the Sullivan law to curb distribution of firearms to criminals and racketeers was recommended in an emergency message to the legislature today by Governor Roosevelt.

The recommendations were based on the advice of Police Commissioner Mulrooney of New York City. The governor, in transmitting the recommendations said no effective check can be made upon the sale of weapons without the co-operation of neighboring states and the federal government. He offered to seek this aid.

In addition to seven recommendations by Commissioner Mulrooney, the governor recommended outlawing the sale and possession of machine guns.

"In times of peace outside of the armed forces these weapons of offense are used only by outlaws," the governor said. "Their possession and sale in this state by private citizens should be a criminal offense."

INVESTIGATE SLAYING
OF MARY BAKER

Clarksburg, W. Va., Sept. 1.—The Slaying of Mary Baker, pretty government clerk in Washington, D. C., entered the investigation of the "Blue-beard" matrimonial activities of Harry F. Powers today when it was learned that Washington detectives were seeking a possible link between the two cases.

A Washington detective was reported to be in Clarksburg today, seeking further information of the activities of Powers, alleged confessed slayer of five, on April 11, 1930, when Miss Baker was slain.

Preliminary investigation showed that one of the letters to Mrs. Asta Buick Elcher, who with her three children were believed hanged by Powers, was postmarked at 5 P. M. on that date in Clarksburg.

The description of the alleged assailant of Miss Baker whose bullet-riddled body was found along a ditch in Arlington, was said to tally with that of Powers.

City Detective Carl Southern talked with Washington investigators in connection with the Baker slaying and was understood to have assured them of his help.

The capital slaying, one of the most sensational unsolved killings in Washington, was brought into the Powers case when preparations were being made for speedy arraignment of Powers for the killing of the four members of the Elcher family and Mrs. Dorothy A. Pressler Lemke, Worcester, Mass.

Judge John C. Southern was in conference with District Attorney Will E. Morris and it was understood the question of a special term of court for Powers' trial was being considered. Morris indicated no decision would be forthcoming until late today.

RENEW FIGHT TO REGAIN
FREEDOM FROM SAN QUENTIN
STATE PRISON

FILES SUIT IN EQUITY AGAINST CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Thos. J. Mooney, renewing his fight to gain freedom from San Quentin state prison, has filed suit in equity against the city and county of San Francisco asking that his life sentence be set aside and a new trial granted him.

The cases of Mooney and Warren Billings, his alleged confederate, have been almost dormant since the state supreme court refused to recommend a pardon for Billings last winter. Both men were convicted on charges of bombing the San Francisco preparedness day parade.

A somewhat similar suit in equity was brought about 10 years ago but "got nowhere," Harry McKenzie, Billings' attorney, said.

In the suit, Mooney charged the case against him was "conceived fraudulently."

RAILROADS TO COMBAT MOTOR TRUCK COMPETITION

PICKUP AND DELIVERY SYSTEM

MOVEMENT REVEALED TODAY
AT INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Washington, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The first concerted effort of railroads to combat motor truck competition by inauguration of a widespread pickup and delivery system was revealed today at the interstate commerce commission.

More than 100 railroads operating in the southwest united in a joint tariff for store-door service on less-than-carload merchandise shipments, effective October 1. They expect to recover about 75 per cent of the business taken from them by trucks.

Western trunk line carriers may adopt the plan for competitive purposes, but at present the northwest is not affected.

County Attorney H. S. Harnsberger indicated he would file second degree murder charges against the brothers some time during the day.

CO-OPERATIVES ATTACK SHILLING

CHARGE HE MADE MISLEADING
STATEMENTS ABOUT FEDERAL FARM BOARD

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Minnesota co-operatives today charged in a formal statement that W. F. Schilling, Northfield, Minn., member of the federal farm board, had made misleading statements concerning the board's methods of doing business.

Minnesota congressmen and co-operative leaders wired President Hoover on Aug. 24 saying that a movement was under way which eventually would destroy regional co-operatives. Schilling replied that the farm board had not required co-operative organizations to sign over to the board the control of their personnel and policies before they could borrow funds provided by the farm marketing act.

The statement today said the co-operative leaders have documentary proof to show untrue the statement of Schilling that the farm board has never made, does not know, and I hope never will make, as a condition of loans to financially sound organizations that supervision be had over the policies and personnel.

"We think the time has come when members of the federal farm board should fairly and truthfully discuss with the producers of this country the activities of that board," the statement said. "It does not help the situation for the federal farm board to send its members about the country at the expense of the taxpayers, making misleading statements concerning the board and its activities and endeavoring to make out every honest critic of the federal farm board as the enemy of the farmer and of co-operative marketing."

NEW SCHOOL BRICK TO BE WINE COLOR

Milwaukee Firm Gets Temperature Control Contract; Cellized Maple for Flooring

TOILET FIXTURES SELECTED

Craftsmen Ask That Only Local Labor be Employed at School

The Johnson Service Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., was awarded the contract for temperature control of the new junior high school at a meeting last evening of the Brainerd Board of Education. The bid was approximately $5,000.

Elger fixtures were selected for the toilet fixtures of the new school. Such fixtures are included in the contract awarded the Gruenhagen Co., Brainerd, for plumbing and heating and this choice of fixture credits the board with $300 on the original contract price.

Undecided as to flooring in classrooms and gymnasium, the board decided definitely to keep "cellized maple" as originally specified in the contract.

Face brick for the new school will be Indiana brick of wine color. Samples are now on hand at the office of the architect at the construction of the school.

A delegation of local labor craftsmen appeared before the board and requested the board to specify to the contractors that only city labor be employed in the construction work. No action was taken although the matter was discussed with the contractors and an agreement was reached whereby as much local labor as possible be employed.

The board employed James R. Bullis as janitor of the Garfield school from month to month for a nine month period beginning Sept. 1.

The next meeting will be held at the Washington high school Sept. 8.

Chief Fuller to Attend Northwest Fire School

The city of Brainerd will be represented at the Fourth Annual Northwest Fire School by Chief Frank W. Fuller of the local fire department. The school will be held at the University of Minnesota, and the Minneapolis Fire Department Drill Hall, September 21 to 25, inclusive. Approximately 400 firemen throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, the Dakotas, and Canada will attend.

The Northwest Fire School was founded four years ago by various co-operating agencies including: League of Minnesota Municipalities, University of Minnesota, Minnesota Department of Insurance, City of Minneapolis, General Inspection Bureau, Minnesota Fire Department Association, National Board of Fire Underwriters, Underwriters Laboratories, and the United States Bureau of Mines.

The program committee of the school has planned an excellent program. Dr. David J. Price of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., will give talks and demonstrations on Dust Explosions and Spontaneous Combustion Fires. Dr. C. B. White, chemical engineer, Elmira, New York, will discuss Chemical Fire Fighting. Reports indicate that the talk of Dr. White has been very well received at fire schools where he has given it. George Knoll of Chicago will discuss Gas Masks and Their Uses and Limitations. Chief McAuliffe of Chicago, one of the most prominent men in the fire fighting game today, will be present. J. E. Florin of the Industrial Commission of Wisconsin will discuss "Rural and Urban Cooperation in Fire Protection, Equipment and Agreements," a subject upon which he is probably better informed than any one in the United States.

The program will consist of lectures, discussions and demonstrations in class rooms in the morning and in the afternoon the men will study actual methods of handling various pieces of equipment. One afternoon will be devoted entirely to demonstrations and training in salvage work with the view of reduction preventable water losses at fires. A group including one man from each department will study first aid work.

The school has grown from an attendance of 248 in 1928 to 350 in 1930.

Mining Inspector at 60 Has Served 40 Yrs. in Diverse Mine Work

Louis Erickson, Ironton, mining inspector for Crow Wing county, celebrated his 60th birthday today and his enjoyment of good comradeship was expressed here by his presentation of a box of cigars to the County Board of Commissioners.

Mr. Erickson is looking towards a new record for safety in mines in the county this year.

"To date this year there has been no fatal accidents. Let us hope there will be none so we can establish a record," Mr. Erickson said.

The mining inspector told the Dispatch a few interesting facts of his life history. Born in Dahlsland, Sweden, on Sept. 1, 1871, he came to America on April 27, 1889, going to Negona, Mich. In 1892 he returned to Sweden and returned to this country the following year to reside on the Mesabi range and took residence on the Cuyuna Range in 1913 where he has lived since. Mr. Erickson said he has been engaged in the various occupations of mine work for the past 40 years.

WRITES OFTEN OF IMAGINARY ESTATE

Joliet Man With Mania for Letter Writing Floods Mail of Officials

Three Crow Wing county officials feel quite confident that Uncle Sam's mailmen will not forget them entirely as long as a patron in a Joliet, Ill., insane asylum continues to interest himself in them.

Judge L. B. Kinder is apparently the more popular of the three with the man for he has received some 79 letters. County Treasurer S. R. Adair and Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnstone have received several letters but the aggregate total does not reach that of Judge Kinder.

The reason for Judge Kinder's popularity is apparent. The Joliet man has visioned himself as the owner of property in this locality and continues to write the judge relative to it. He writes the judge as "Judge Lindner, Probation Court."

In telling of former experiences with unfortunates with writing manias, the judge recalled one individual from Crow Wing county who scribbled endless, meaningless love notes on whatever paper he could find. The man's mind had become demented when he was jilted in love, the records show.

FUR BREEDERS WILL HAVE STATE DISPLAY

Association to Exhibit Prime Pelts of Minnesota Fur Bearing Animals at Fair

Establishing a new precedent, the Universal Fur Breeders' Association, an international organization of fur producers, will sponsor the Fur Industrial exhibit at the 1931 Minnesota State Fair, to be held September 5 to 12, it was announced today by Clement Thompson, Brainerd, president of the association.

The Universal Fur Breeders' Association is supported by members in many foreign countries as well as the United States and Canada. The organization's main offices are located in the Lyceum building of this city.

Invitations to exhibit prize live fur-bearing animals at this display are being issued to the foremost breeders of the state. A great many prime pelts of beaver, otter, mink, fish, martin and other luxurious furs raised in Minnesota will also be exhibited.

"Membership in our organization or in any other organization devoted to fur breeders will not be required of those breeders whom we are inviting to participate in the display we are sponsoring," Mr. Thompson said. "We are conducting this display for the benefit of the fur breeding industry of Minnesota as a whole and wish to make it a truly representative showing in order to more greatly emphasize its educational purpose to the half-million or more visitors expected to attend the forthcoming fair."

"Minnesota has made tremendous strides in the field of raising wild animals in captivity. Our industry is rapidly becoming as strong as other branches of animal husbandry and we are using every factor at our disposal to acquaint the people of Minnesota with what we are doing," Mr. Thompson continued.

The Fur Industrial Exhibit to be conducted by the Universal Fur Breeders' Association will be located at Industrial Building No. 6, on the Fair grounds and is easily found from any gate opening into the Fair area. Mr. Thompson, in behalf of this organization, extends a cordial welcome to all who live in Brainerd and surrounding territory to visit their display and make it their headquarters while enjoying the Fair.

Face brick for the new school will be Indiana brick of wine color. Samples are now on hand at the office of the architect at the construction of the school.

A delegation of local labor craftsmen appeared before the board and requested the board to specify to the contractors that only city labor be employed in the construction work.

No action was taken although the matter was discussed with the contractors and an agreement was reached whereby as much local labor as possible be employed.

The board employed James R. Bullis as janitor of the Garfield school from month to month for a nine month period beginning Sept. 1.

The next meeting will be held at the Washington high school Sept. 8.

Chief Fuller to Attend Northwest Fire School

The city of Brainerd will be represented at the Fourth Annual Northwest Fire School by Chief Frank W. Fuller of the local fire department. The school will be held at the University of Minnesota, and the Minneapolis Fire Department Drill Hall, September 21 to 25, inclusive. Approximately 400 firemen throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, the Dakotas, and Canada will attend.

The Northwest Fire School was founded four years ago by various co-operating agencies including: League of Minnesota Municipalities, University of Minnesota, Minnesota Department of Insurance, City of Minneapolis, General Inspection Bureau, Minnesota Fire Department Association, National Board of Fire Underwriters, Underwriters Laboratories, and the United States Bureau of Mines.

The program committee of the school has planned an excellent program. Dr. David J. Price of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., will give talks and demonstrations on Dust Explosions and Spontaneous Combustion Fires. Dr. C. B. White, chemical engineer, Elmira, New York, will discuss Chemical Fire Fighting. Reports indicate that the talk of Dr. White has been very well received at fire schools where he has given it. George Knoll of Chicago will discuss Gas Masks and Their Uses and Limitations. Chief McAuliffe of Chicago, one of the most prominent men in the fire fighting game today, will be present. J. E. Florin of the Industrial Commission of Wisconsin will discuss "Rural and Urban Cooperation in Fire Protection, Equipment and Agreements," a subject upon which he is probably better informed than any one in the United States.

The program will consist of lectures, discussions and demonstrations in class rooms in the morning and in the afternoon the men will study actual methods of handling various pieces of equipment. One afternoon will be devoted entirely to demonstrations and training in salvage work with the view of reduction preventable water losses at fires. A group including one man from each department will study first aid work.

The school has grown from an attendance of 248 in 1928 to 350 in 1930.

Mining Inspector at 60 Has Served 40 Yrs. in Diverse Mine Work

Louis Erickson, Ironton, mining inspector for Crow Wing county, celebrated his 60th birthday today and his enjoyment of good comradeship was expressed here by his presentation of a box of cigars to the County Board of Commissioners.

Mr. Erickson is looking towards a new record for safety in mines in the county this year.

"To date this year there has been no fatal accidents. Let us hope there will be none so we can establish a record," Mr. Erickson said.

The mining inspector told the Dispatch a few interesting facts of his life history. Born in Dahlsland, Sweden, on Sept. 1, 1871, he came to America on April 27, 1889, going to Negonia, Mich. In 1892 he returned to Sweden and returned to this country the following year to reside on the Mesabi range and took residence on the Cuyuna Range in 1913 where he has lived since. Mr. Erickson said he has been engaged in the various occupations of mine work for the past 40 years.

WRITES OFTEN OF IMAGINARY ESTATE

Joliet Man With Mania for Letter Writing Floods Mail of Officials

Three Crow Wing county officials can feel quite confident that Uncle Sam's mailmen will not forget them entirely as long as a patron in a Joliet, Ill., insane asylum continues to interest himself in them.

Judge L. B. Kinder is apparently the more popular of the three with the man for he has received some 79 letters. County Treasurer S. R. Adair and Clerk of Court W. A. M. Jounstone have received several letters but the aggregate total does not reach that of Judge Kinder.

The reason for Judge Kinder's popularity is apparent. The Joliet man has visioned himself as the owner of property in this locality and continues to write the judge relative to it. He writes the judge as "Judge Linder, Probation Court."

In telling of former experiences with unfortunates with writing manias, the judge recalled one individual from Crow Wing county who scribbled endless, meaningless love notes on whatever paper he could find. The man's mind had become demented when he was jilted in love, the records show.

FUR BREEDERS WILL HAVE STATE DISPLAY

Association to Exhibit Prime Pelts of Minnesota Fur Bearing Animals at Fair

Establishing a new precedent, the Universal Fur Breeders' Association, an international organization of fur producers, will sponsor the Fur Industrial exhibit at the 1931 Minnesota State Fair, to be held September 5 to 12, it was announced today by Clement Thompson, Brainerd, president of the association.

The Universal Fur Breeders' Association is supported by members in many foreign countries as well as the United States and Canada. The organization's main offices are located in the Lyceum building of this city.

Invitations to exhibit prize live fur-bearing animals at this display are being issued to the foremost breeders of the state. A great many prime pelts of beaver, otter, mink, fish, martin and other luxurious furs raised in Minnesota will also be exhibited.

"Membership in our organization or in any other organization devoted to fur breeders will not be required of those breeders whom we are inviting to participate in the display we are sponsoring," Mr. Thompson said. "We are conducting this display for the benefit of the fur breeding industry of Minnesota as a whole and wish to make it a truly representative showing in order to more greatly emphasize its educational purpose to the half-million or more visitors expected to attend the forthcoming fair."

"Minnesota has made tremendous strides in the field of raising wild animals in captivity. Our industry is rapidly becoming as strong as other branches of animal husbandry and we are using every factor at our disposal to acquaint the people of Minnesota with what we are doing," Mr. Thompson continued.

The Fur Industrial Exhibit to be conducted by the Universal Fur Breeders' Association will be located at Industrial Building No. 6, on the Fair grounds and is easily found from any gate opening into the Fair area. Mr. Thompson, in behalf of this organization, extends a cordial welcome to all who live in Brainerd and surrounding territory to visit their display and make it their headquarters while enjoying the fair.

ERNE SCHAAF IS STEP NEARER TO BOXING GOAL

HIS VICTORY OVER CAMPOLO TO GO DOWN IN RECORDS AS KNOCKOUT

ARGENTINE FIGHTER SLIDES TO
CANVAS AND IS COUNTED
OUT BY REFEREE

New York, Sept. 1.—Ernie Schaaf, youthful Boston heavyweight, today was a step nearer his goal—the world championship and the Muldoon-Tunney trophy for which he served as model three years ago.

Schaaf's advance was made at the expense of Victorio Campolo of Argentina, whose bid for championship ranking came to an inglorious end in the seventh round of a scheduled 12-round bout at Ebbets Field last night.

Schaaf won the bout when Campolo—realizing he had little chance of fighting his way from behind to win—"retired" after 1:45 of the seventh round. The victory will go down in the record books as a knockout. Schaaf's eighth consecutive knockout triumph, but in reality Campolo simply became tired, slid to the canvas and remained there until counted out.

Schaaf was not particularly sensational in winning but he was impressive and his showing stamped him as a worthy foe for any of the other title contenders. The Bostonian, as usual, was slow and methodical but he handled himself well and scored heavily both at infighting and in long range boxing.

He offset Campolo's physical advantage with his own excellent condition and finished the bout fresh and strong. Campolo was so leg weary he would have been unable to continue much longer, even had he fought until he was actually stopped.

Campolo started out in the first round like a sure winner and battered Schaaf around the ring. He used his hard smashing straight right to good advantage and showed an unexpectedly improved left. After his first flurry, however, he tired badly and won only one more round, making a final desperate rally to take the sixth by a slight margin, before "retiring" in the seventh.

Schaaf was particularly accurate with a hard left hook, with which he stopped Campolo's bull-like rushes, and he weakened the Argentine badly with hard right hand smashes to the body.

"Retirement" in the ring last night probably also will mark Campolo's actual retirement from boxing. The 6-foot 6½-inch, 225-pound Argentine, once hailed by such judges of fighting talent as Commissioner William Muldoon and the late Tex Rickard as a certain future champion, now has no hope of attaining that goal.

LOU GEHRIG HAS VERY GOOD YEAR IN N. Y. YANKEES

THE CLOUTING FIRST BASEMAN
LEADS BOTH LEAGUES IN HOME RUNS

LEADS HIS OWN LEAGUE IN HITS,
RUNS SCORED AND RUNS
BATTED IN

Yankee Stadium, New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Lou Gehrig hit his 40th home run of the season in the third inning of the second game of a double-header between the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees. It was Gehrig's second home run of the day and came with the bases full to give the Yanks a four to nothing lead.

The drive into the right field bleachers was his sixth in five days.

Yankee Stadium, New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Lou Gehrig won two home runs ahead of his teammate, Babe Ruth, today, when he hit his 39th home run of the season in the seventh inning of the first game of a double-header between Boston and New York. The drive over the right field bleachers came with Ruth on base, and while Gaston was pitching.

New York, Sept. 1.—The year 1931 has been a tough one for many persons, but not for Lou Gehrig, clouting first baseman of the New York Yankees.

Unless he breaks a leg or falls into a pronounced slump, Gehrig is almost certain to make the season his best in baseball so far. Today, with the season less than a month to go, Gehrig leads both leagues in home runs, and his own league in hits, runs scored, runs batted in, and is well up among the base stealers.

Lou displaced Babe Ruth as the home run leader yesterday when he hit No. 38 as the Yankees were losing to the Washington Senators, 6 to 5. The triumph increased Washington's lead over the third-place Yankees to two full games.

Philadelphia's World Champion Athletics retained their 15½-game lead by defeating the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 0. Waite Hoyt allowed the Sox but six hits.

Chicago took a firm hold on the American League cellar by losing a 15 to 5 decision to the Cleveland Indians. Wes Ferrell, Cleveland's star right-hander, pitched six-hit ball and led the Indians' attack with two home runs.

Earl Whitehill pitched the Detroit Tigers to an 8 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Whitehill allowed but six scattered hits.

New York's Giants strengthened their hold on second place by taking both ends of a double-header from the Boston Braves in the only National League games played. The scores were 3 to 2 and 4 to 3.

The first game was a pitching duel between Frankhouse and Fred Fitzsimmons. Frankhouse lost his own game when he walked Marshall to force in the winning run in the ninth.

The Giants won the second game when they bunched three hits for a run in the tenth inning.

ERNIE SCHAAF IS STEP NEARER TO BOXING GOAL

HIS VICTORY OVER CAMPOLO TO GO DOWN IN RECORDS AS
KNOCKOUT

ARGENTINE FIGHTER SLIDES TO
CANVAS AND IS COUNTED
OUT BY REFEREE

New York, Sept. 1.—Ernie Schaaf, youthful Boston heavyweight, today was a step nearer his goal—the world championship and the Muldoon-Taney trophy for which he served as model three years ago.

Schaaf's advance was made at the expense of Victorio Campolo of Argentina, whose bid for championship ranking came to an inglorious end in the seventh round of a scheduled 12-round bout at Ebbets Field last night. Schaaf won the bout when Campolo, realizing he had little chance of fighting his way from behind to win, "retired" after 1:45 of the seventh round. The victory will go down in the record books as a knockout, Schaaf's eighth consecutive knockout triumph, but in reality Campolo simply became tired, slid to the canvas and remained there until counted out.

Schaaf was not particularly sensational in winning but he was impressive and his showing stamped him as a worthy foe for any of the other title contenders. The Bostonian, as usual, was slow and methodical but he handled himself well and scored heavily both at infighting and in long range boxing.

He offset Campolo's physical advantage with his own excellent condition and finished the bout fresh and strong. Campolo was so leg weary he would have been unable to continue much longer, even had he fought until he was actually stopped.

Campolo started out in the first round like a sure winner and battered Schaaf around the ring. He used his hard smashing straight right to good advantage and showed an unexpectedly improved left. After his first flurry, however, he tired badly and won only one more round, making a final desperate rally to take the sixth by a slight margin, before "retiring" in the seventh.

Schaaf was particularly accurate with a hard left hook, with which he stopped Campolo's bull-like rushes, and he weakened the Argentine badly with hard right hand smashes to the body.

"Retirement" in the ring last night probably also will mark Campolo's actual retirement from boxing. The 6-foot 6½-inch, 225-pound Argentine, once hailed by such judges of fighting talent as Commissioner William Muldoon and the late Tex Rickard as a certain future champion, now has no hope of attaining that goal.

LOU GEHRIG HAS VERY GOOD YEAR IN N. Y. YANKEES

THE CLOUTING FIRST BASEMAN
LEADS BOTH LEAGUES IN
HOME RUNS

LEADS HIS OWN LEAGUE IN HITS,
RUNS SCORED AND RUNS
BATTED IN

Yankee Stadium, New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Lou Gehrig hit his 40th home run of the season in the third inning of the second game of a double-header between the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees. It was Gehrig's second home run of the day and came with the bases full to give the Yanks a four to nothing lead.

The drive into the right field bleachers was his sixth in five days. Yankee Stadium, New York, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Lou Gehrig went two home runs ahead of his teammate, Babe Ruth, today, when he hit his 39th home run of the season in the seventh inning of the first game of a double-header between Boston and New York.

The drive over the right field bleachers came with Ruth on base, and while Gaston was pitching.

New York, Sept. 1.—The year 1931 has been a tough one for many persons, but not for Lou Gehrig, clouting first baseman of the New York Yankees.

Unless he breaks a leg or falls into a pronounced slump, Gehrig is almost certain to make the season his best in baseball so far. Today, with the season less than a month to go, Gehrig leads both leagues in home runs, and his own league in hits, runs scored, runs batted in, and is well up among the base stealers.

Lou displaced Babe Ruth as the home run leader yesterday when he hit No. 38 as the Yankees were losing to the Washington Senators, 6 to 5. The triumph increased Washington's lead over the third-place Yankees to two full games.

Philadelphia's World Champion Athletics retained their 15½-game lead by defeating the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 0. Waite Hoyt allowed the Sox but six hits.

Chicago took a firm hold on the American League cellar by losing a 15 to 5 decision to the Cleveland Indians. Wes Ferrell, Cleveland's star right-hander, pitched six-hit ball and led the Indians' attack with two home runs.

Earl Whitehill pitched the Detroit Tigers to an 8 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Whitehill allowed but six scattered hits.

New York's Giants strengthened their hold on second place by taking both ends of a double-header from the Boston Braves in the only National League games played. The scores were 3 to 2 and 4 to 3.

The first game was a pitching duel between Fred Frankhouse and Freddie Fitzsimmons. Frankhouse lost his own game when he walked Marshall to force in the winning run in the ninth.

The Giants won the second game when they bunched three hits for a run in the tenth inning.
